Right or Wrong?

Because unregenerate society recognizes no absolutes, men base their lives on subjective concepts of good and evil. They do what is right in their own eyes. Tragically, many Christians have adopted the world's philosophy.

God's point of view, however, differs dramatically from man's. As our Eternal Creator, He sees our lives in view of eternity; and seen in this light, man's whole duty is to "fear God and keep his commandments."

If we as Christians are to lead lives pleasing to our Lord, we must learn to look at ourselves and our world through His eyes.

God has revealed Himself to us in His Word, and through it we gain the understanding that allows us to see all of God's creation from God's perspective and live our lives "approved unto God."

For now we see through a glass, darkly;
but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
1 Corinthians 13:12

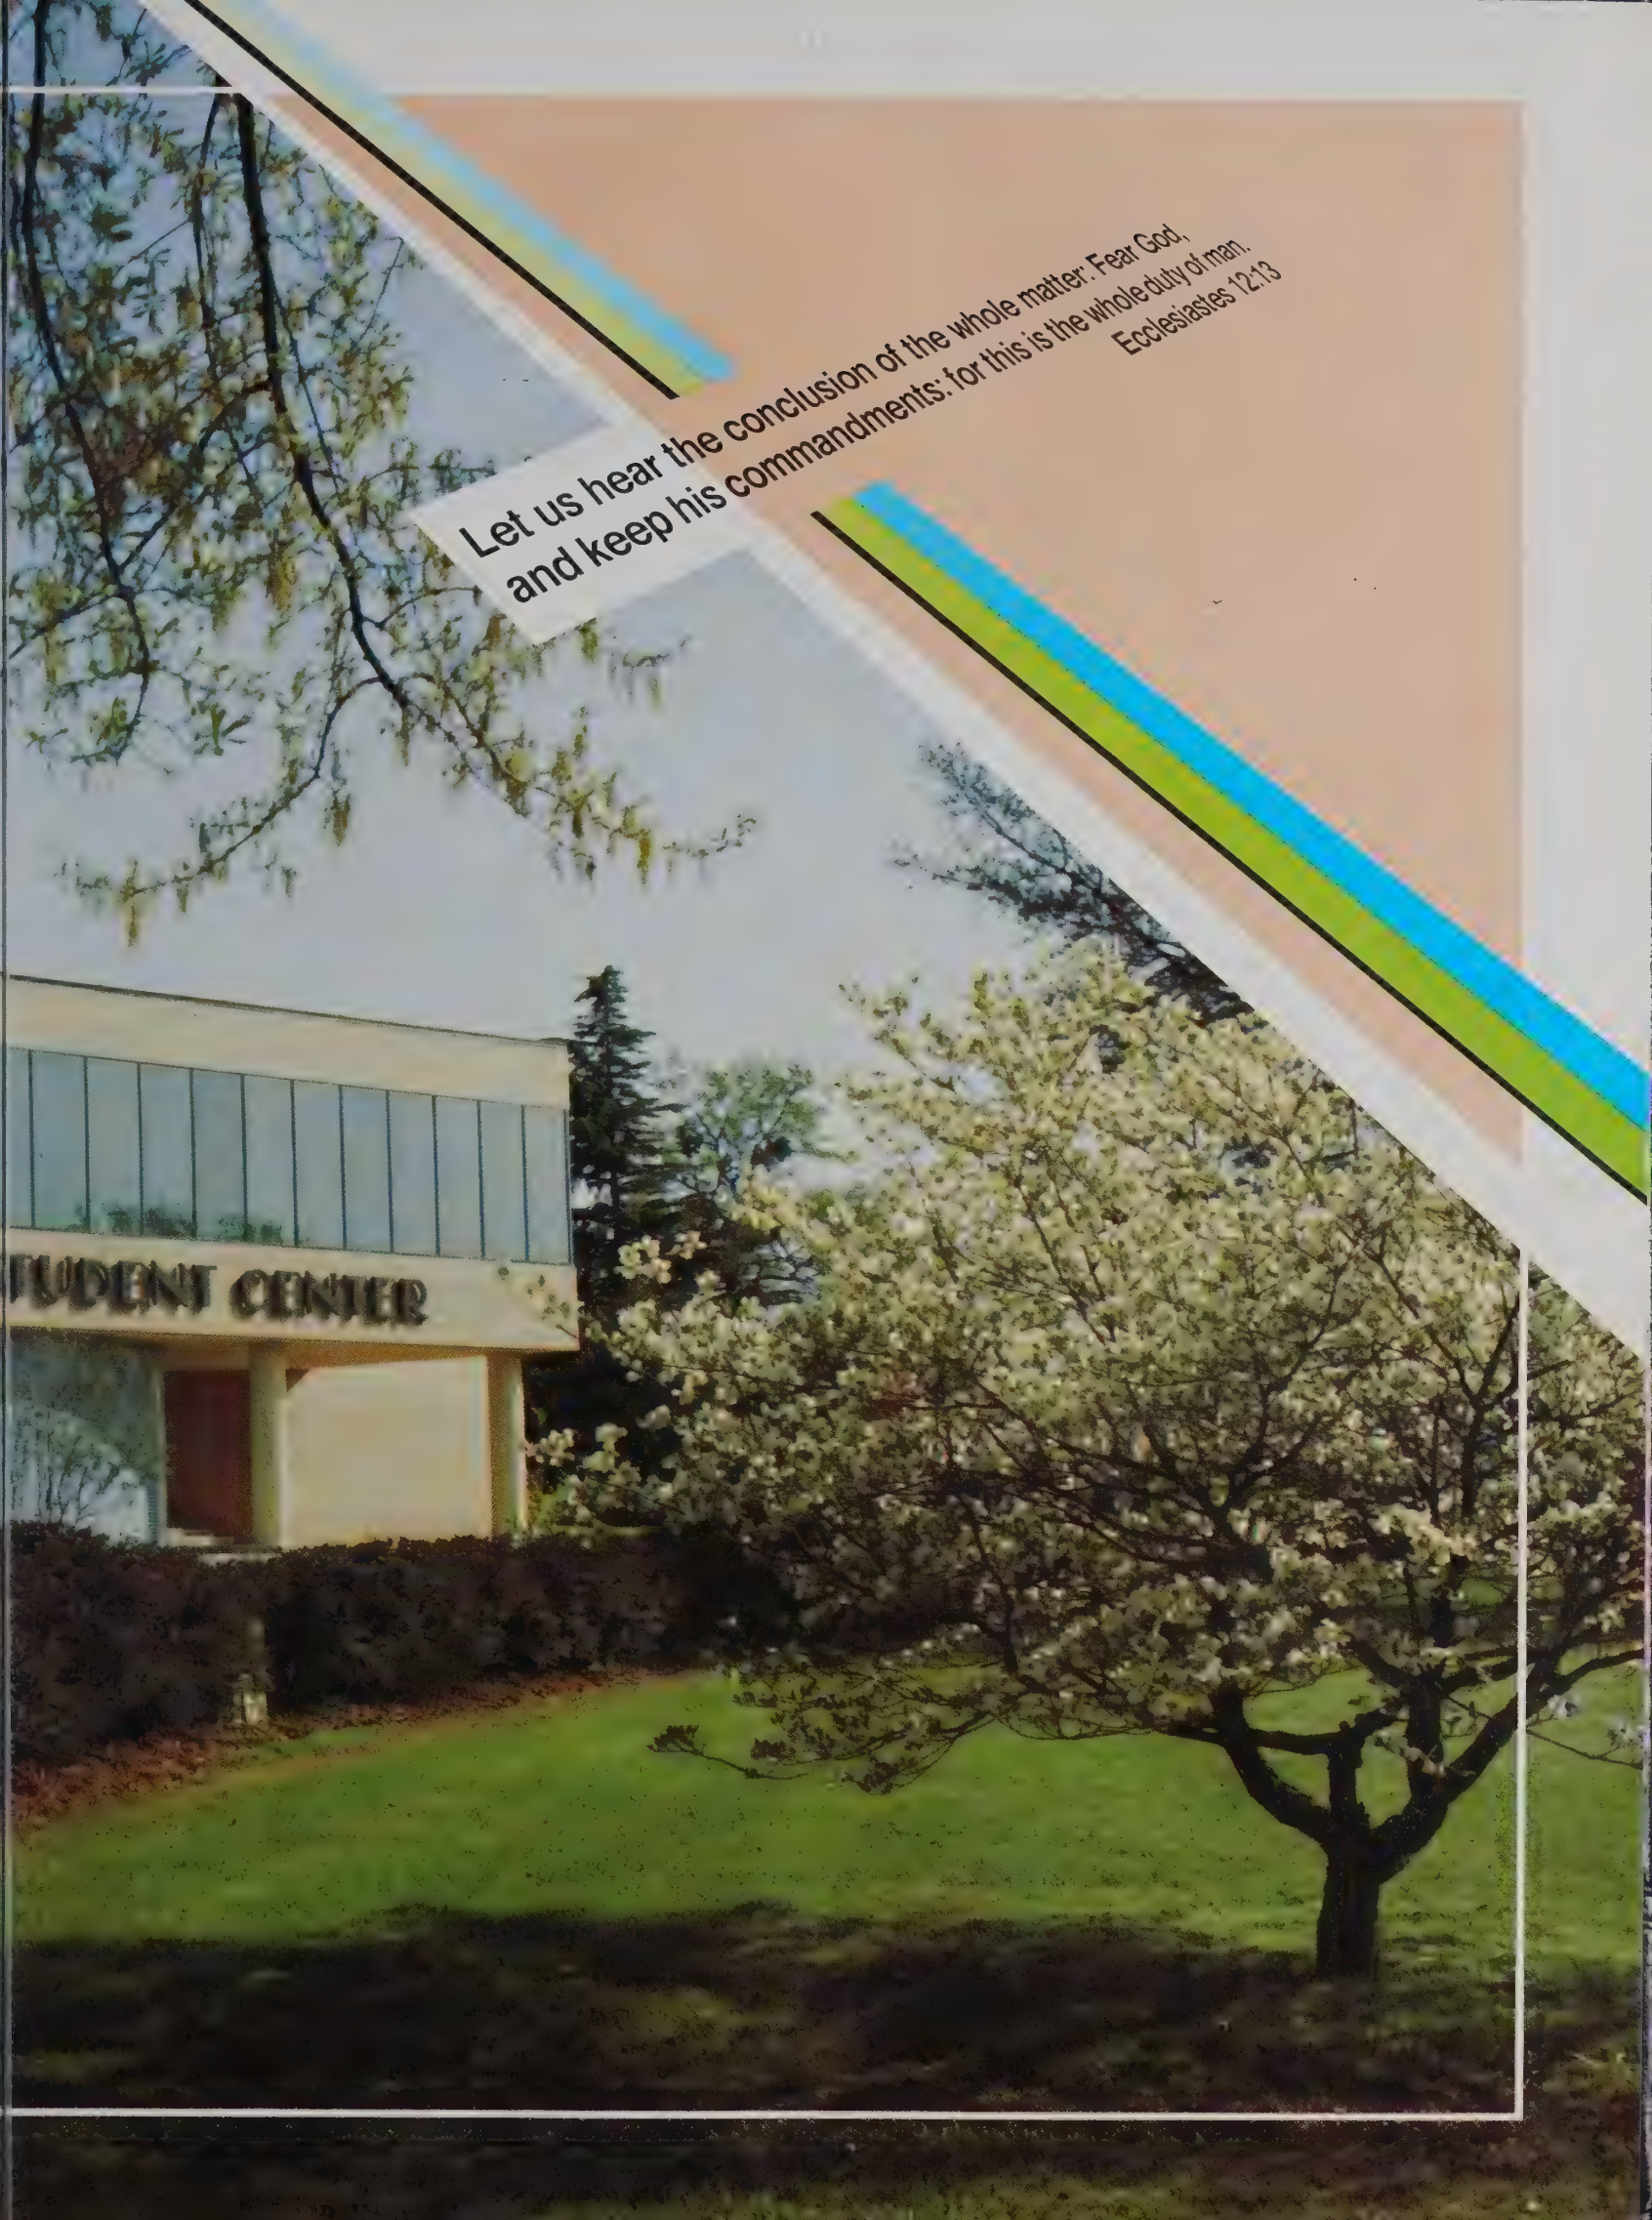

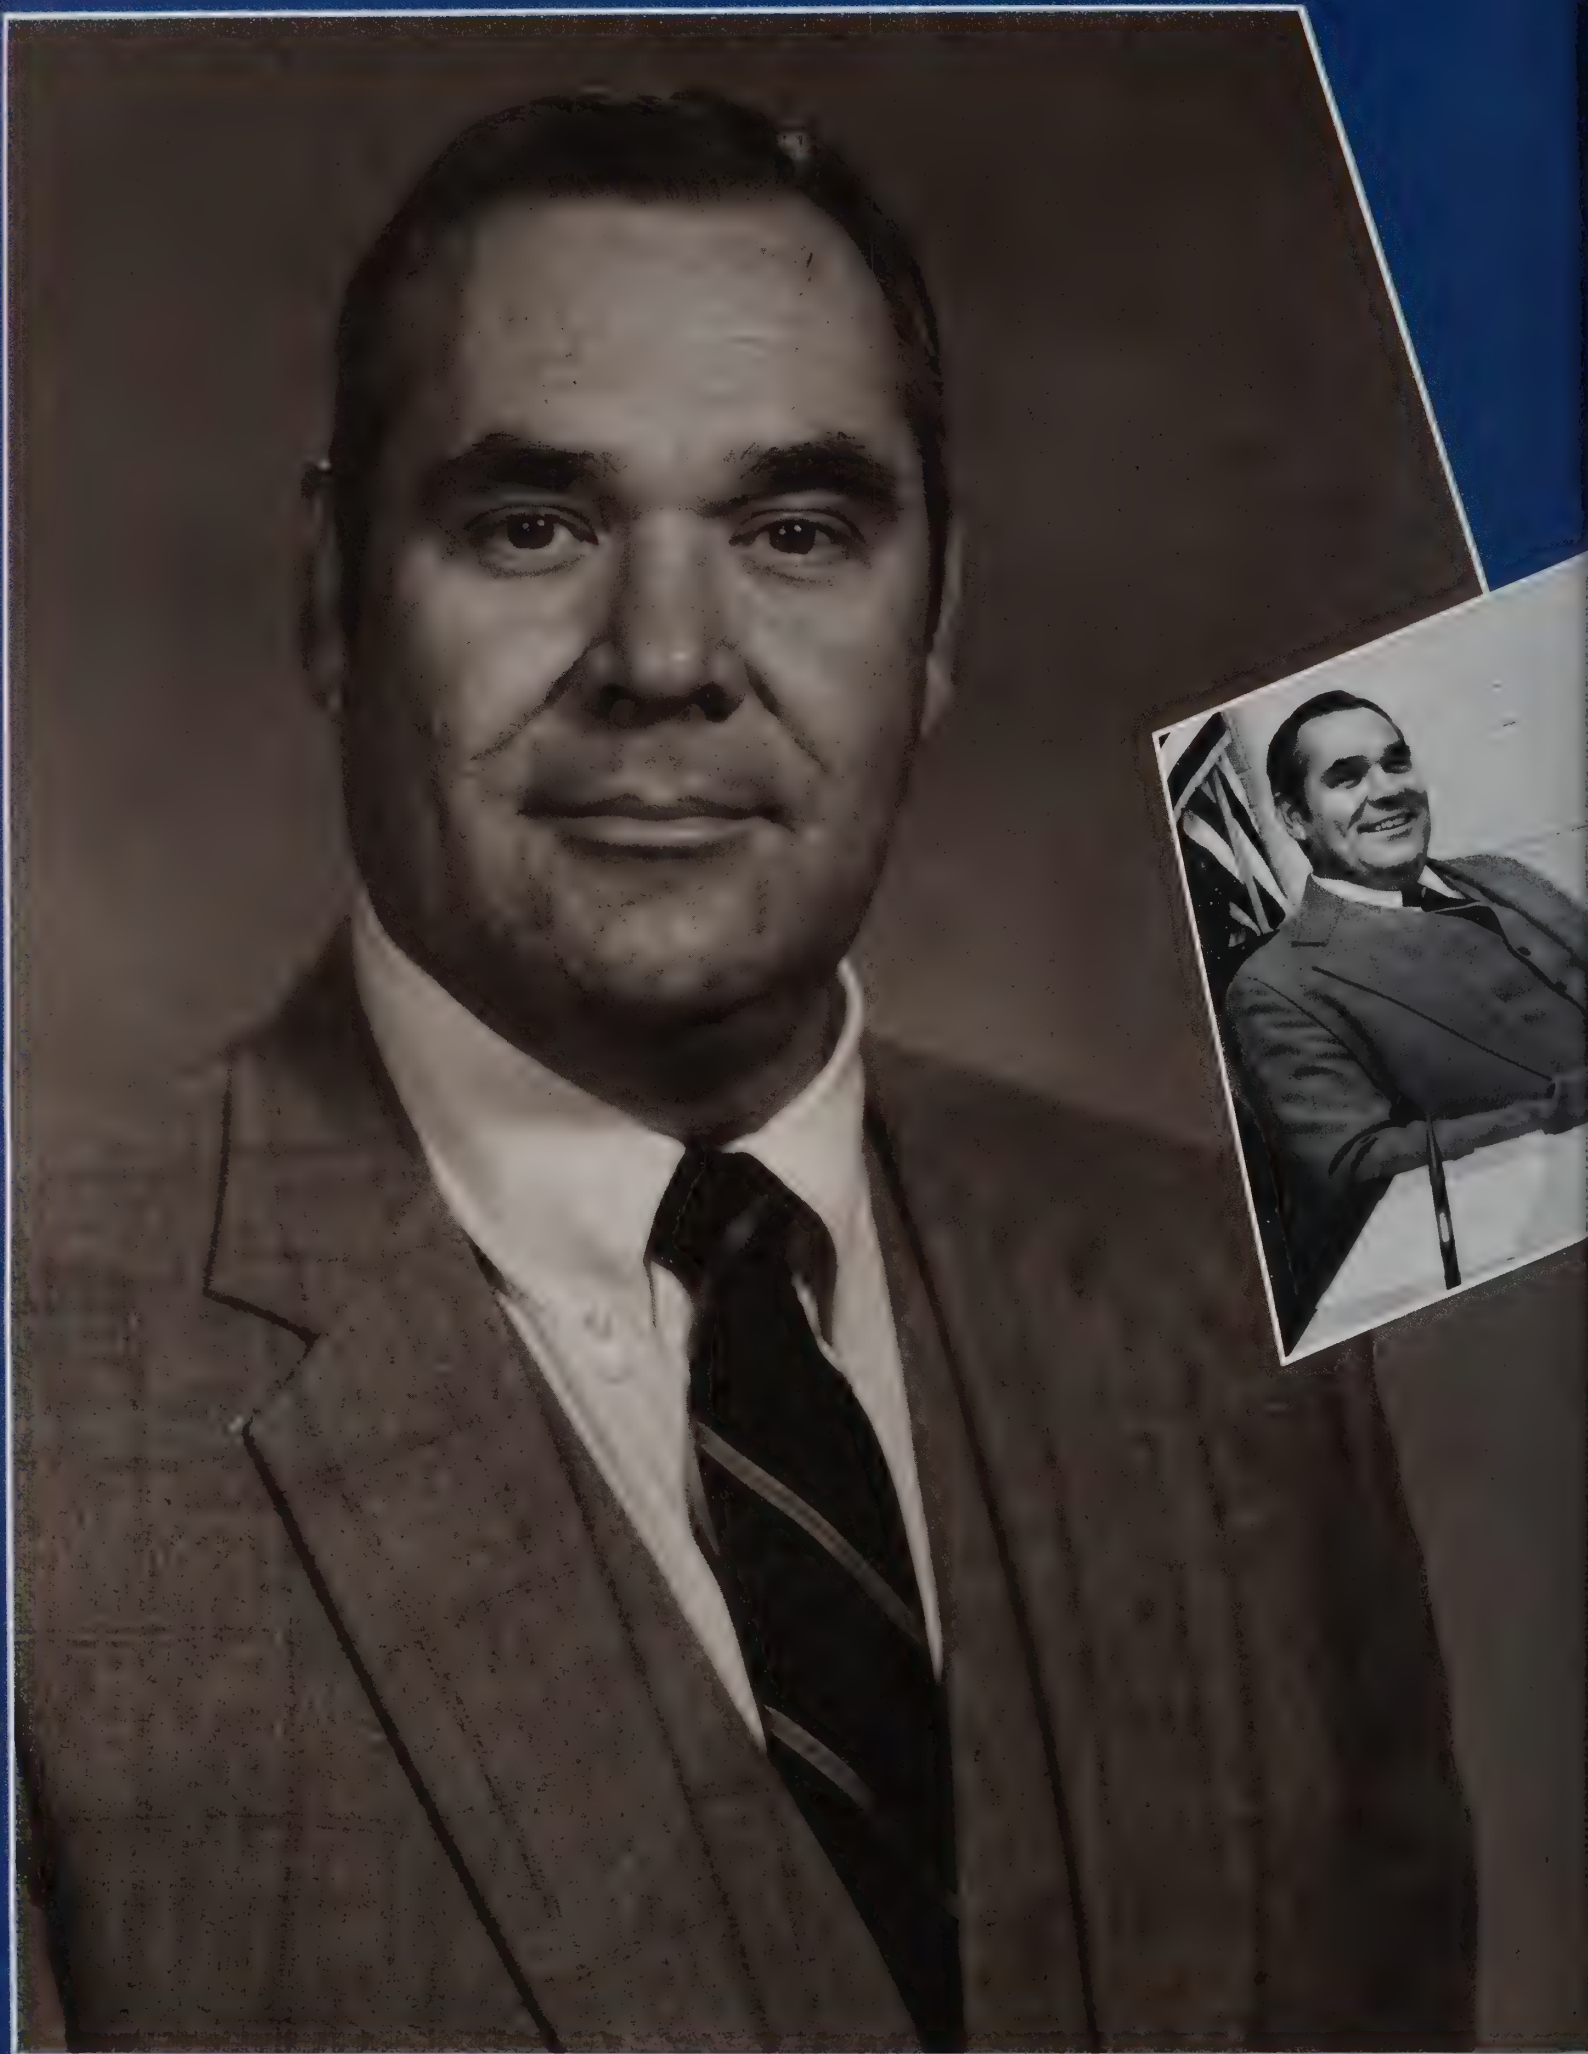

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter. Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.
Ecclesiastes 12:13

DEDICATION

Mr. Craig Olsen

Seeing life from God's perspective enables a Christian to view both the world and his own life in the light of eternity. We have chosen this year to honor Mr. Craig Olsen, a man whose actions prove that his perspective is truly God's perspective.

Though Mr. Olsen's duties during his twenty-two years of service have been varied, he has always striven to build strong character qualities in the lives of the students in his care. His consistent giving of himself to others has influenced the students to give of themselves likewise. Since graduating from the University in 1962, Mr. Olsen has served in various staff positions including serving as secretary and University host. He is presently serving as men's dormitory supervisor, assistant Dean of Men, and supervisor of Academy discipline. The experience that he gained as head usher while a student aids him now as he successfully directs the present ushers' crew. Each year, his dormitory and the ushers reflect his leadership and concern for others by giving two of the largest Bible Conference offerings on Campus.

As an example of his evangelistic heart, for the last eight summers Mr. Olsen has operated a "Christian Ministry on Wheels," traveling in the Eastern United States and Canada holding five-day clubs, evangelistic meetings, and showing Christian films in secular campgrounds.

Other University staff members see him as a man of compassion, while the students see him as a father. We, the Vintage staff, see him as a man whose life is genuinely lived in God's perspective, and we proudly dedicate the 1984 Vintage to Mr. Craig Olsen.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth,

School of Religion

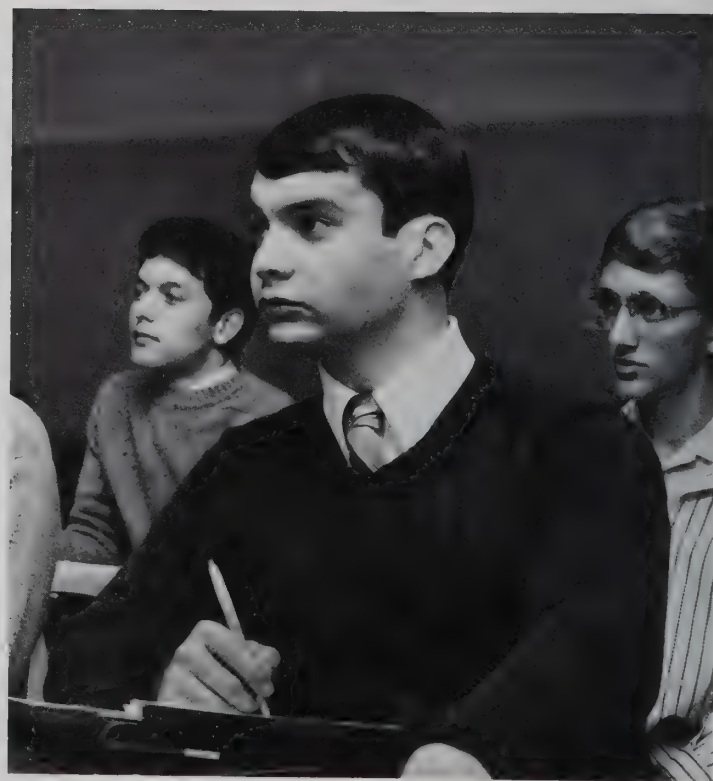

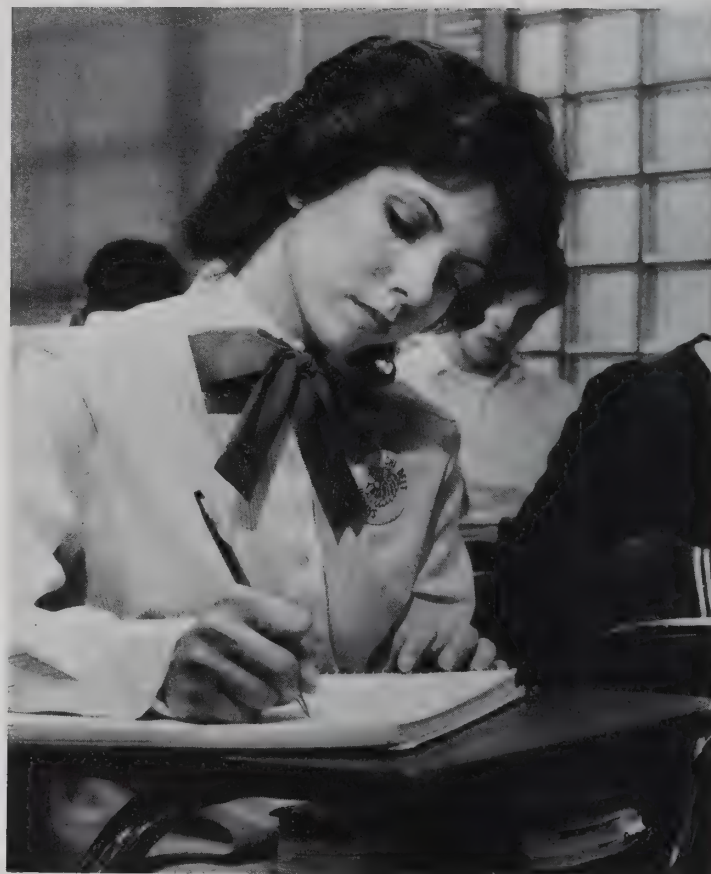

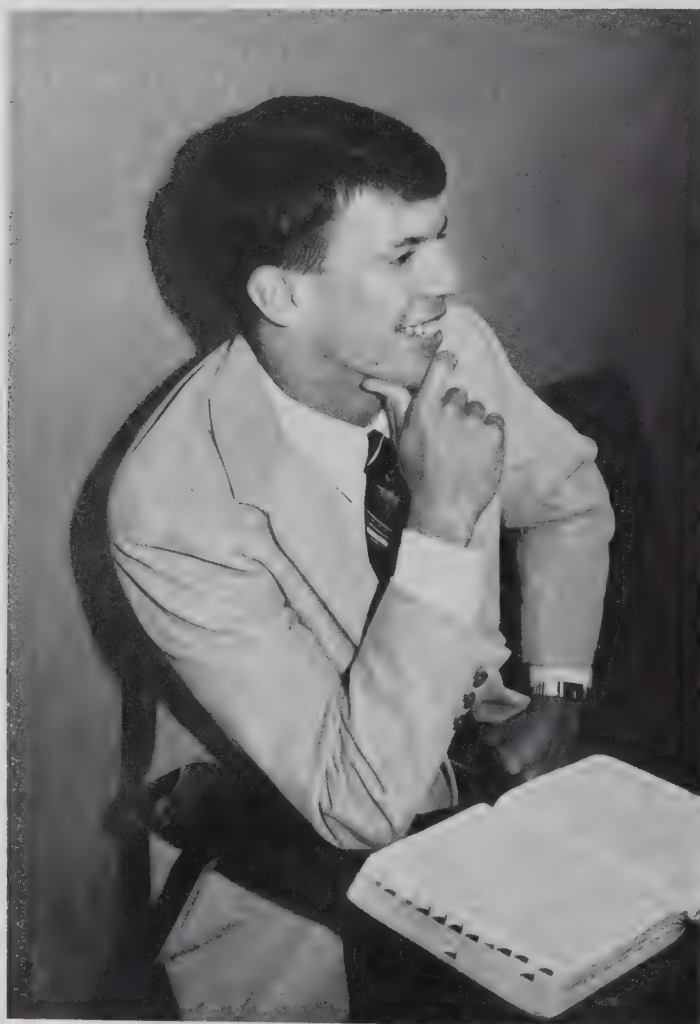

Thurman Wisdom, Dean

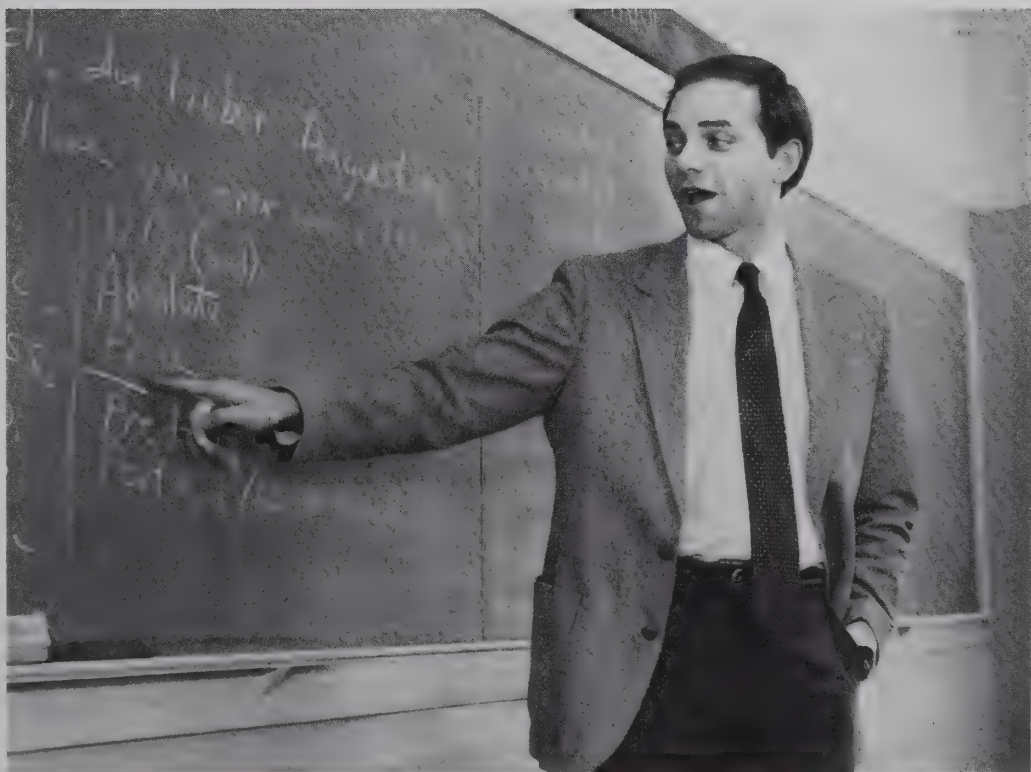

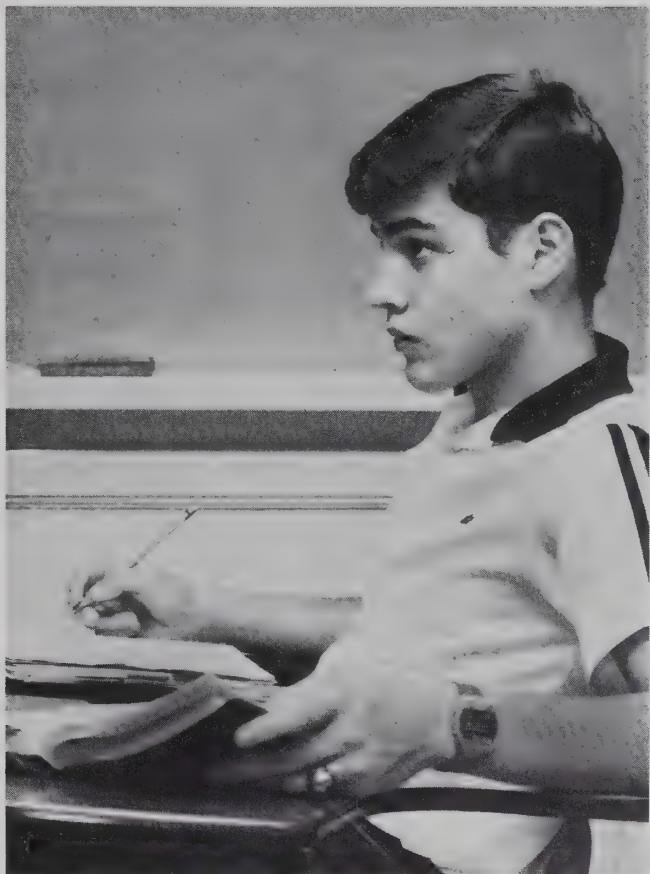

When Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., founded Bob Jones College over 57 years ago, he placed a strong emphasis on the training of his "preacher boys." Bob Jones University has continued through the years to prepare students for service in local, fundamental churches. Although studying a broad area of subjects, the student concentrates on mastering the Word of God and developing Christian service skills. With the Division of Bible, the Division of Practical Studies, and the Division of Graduate Studies, the School of Religion produces fundamental preachers, missionaries, and Christian workers to go out into all the world spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

School of Fine Arts

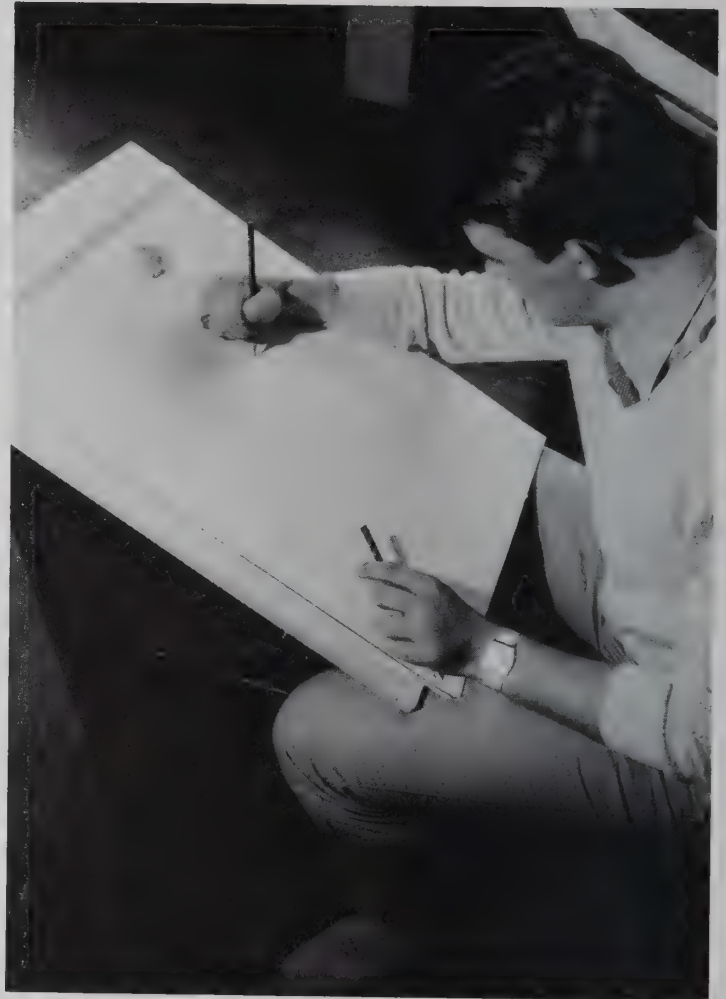

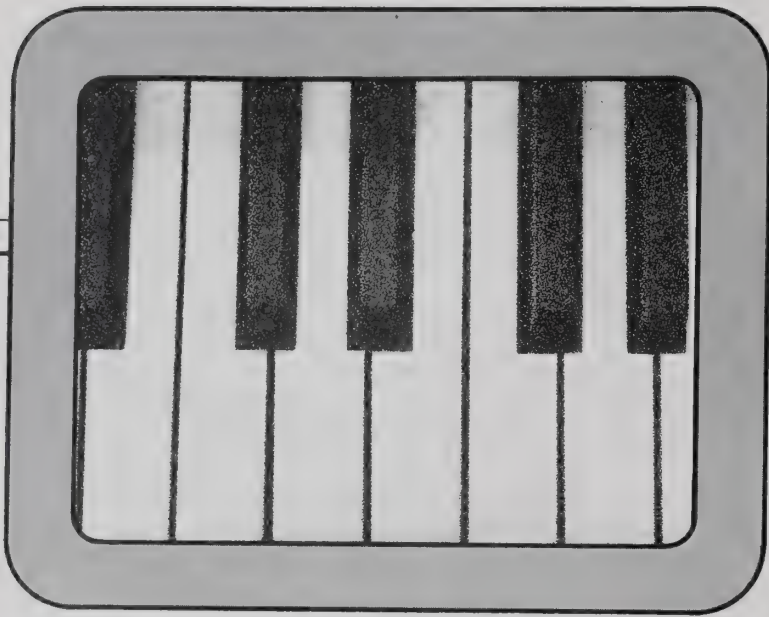

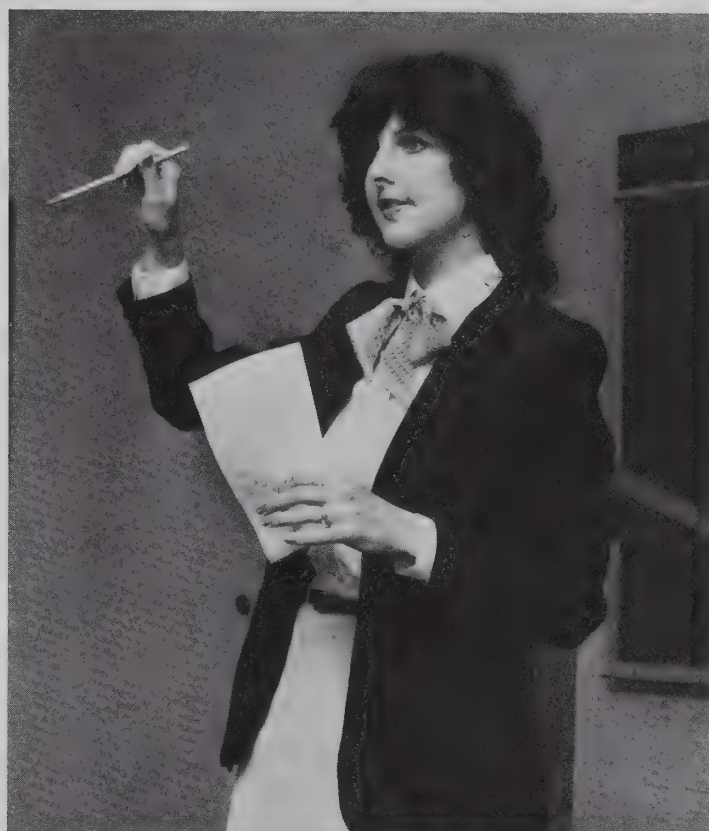

Dwight Gustafson, Dean

As Daniel was preferred by King Darius for his excellent spirit and skillful preparation in knowledge, so the School of Fine Arts strives for the development of both academic and spiritual excellence in its students. The art, cinema, music, and speech divisions adhere to rigid academic standards coupled with a strong spiritual emphasis to produce students who desire to serve the Lord with the special talents he has given them.

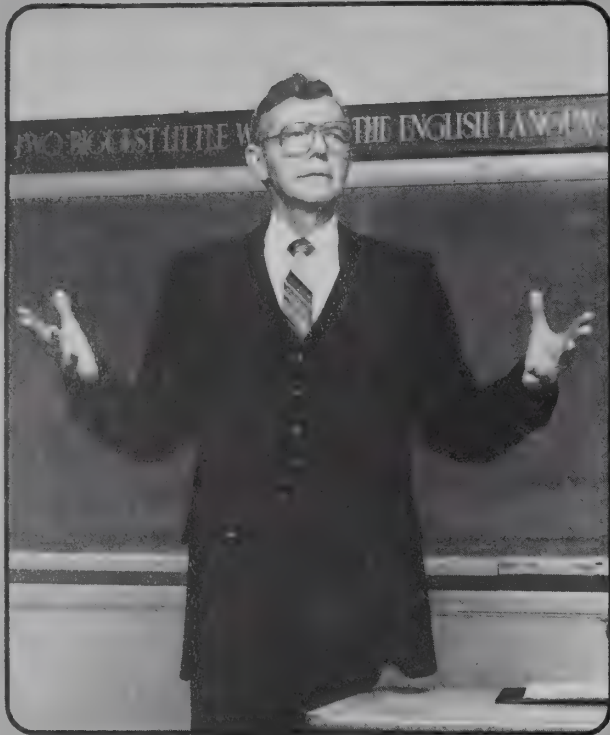

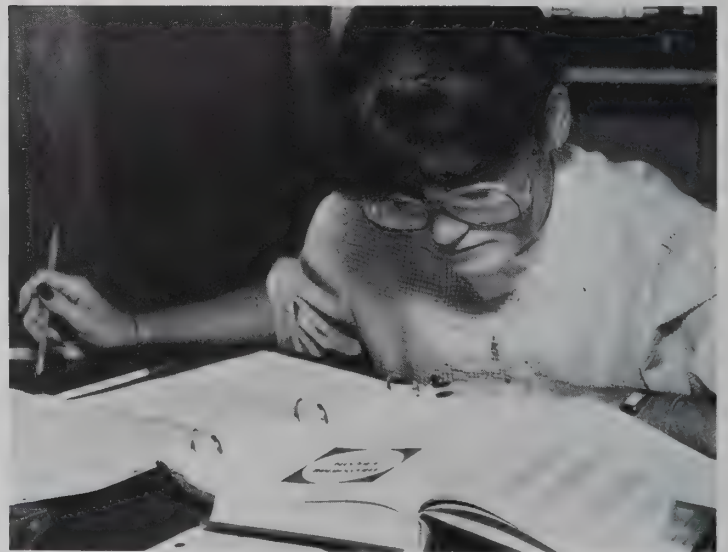

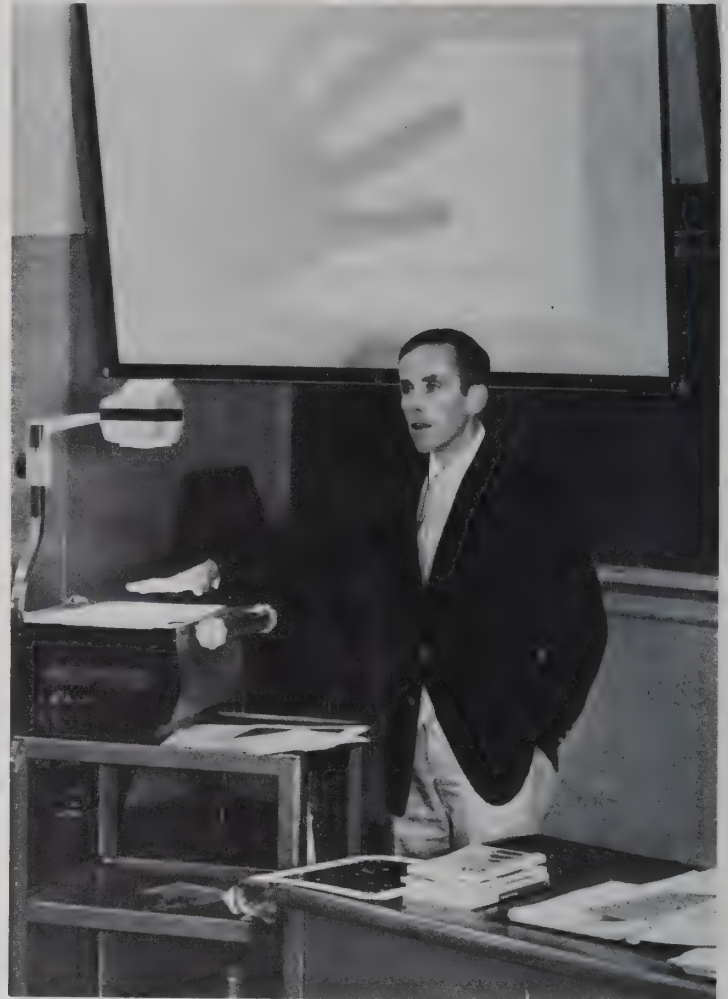

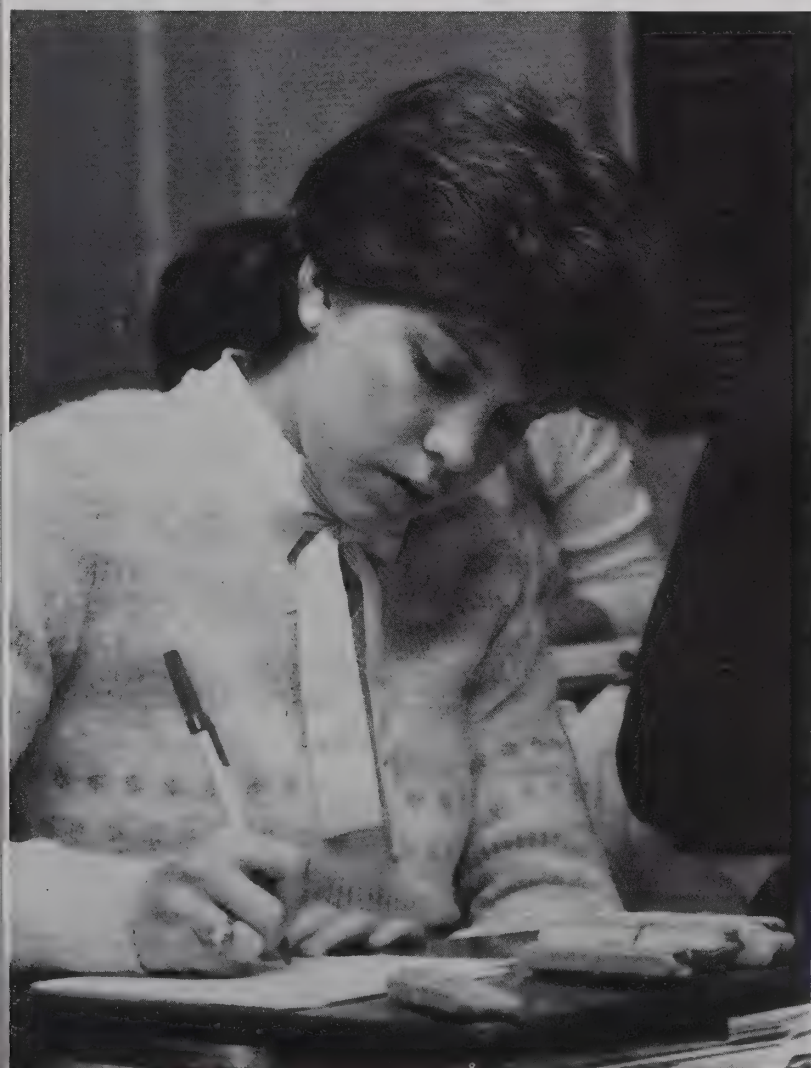

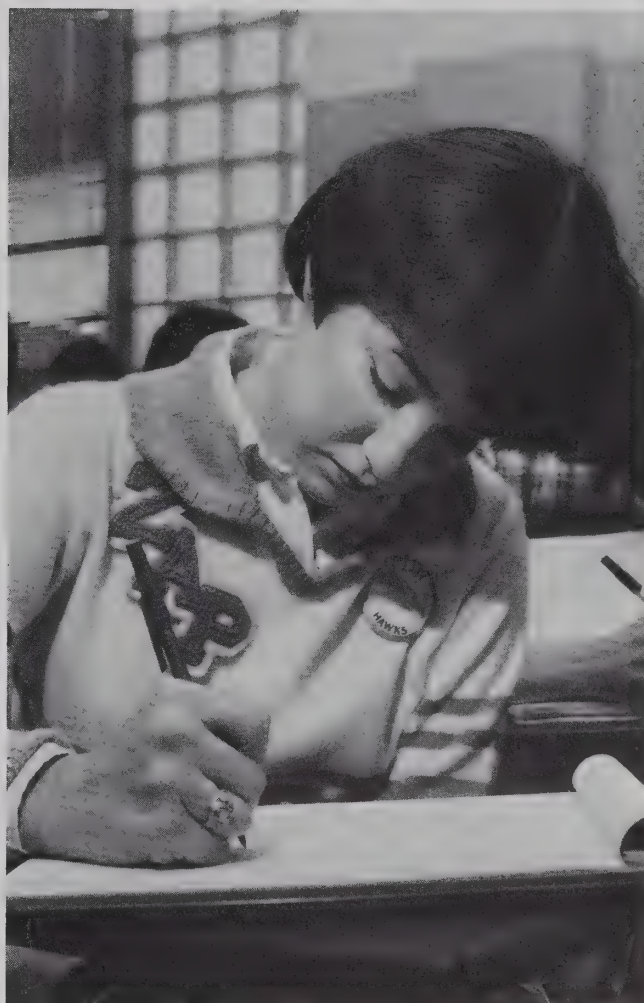

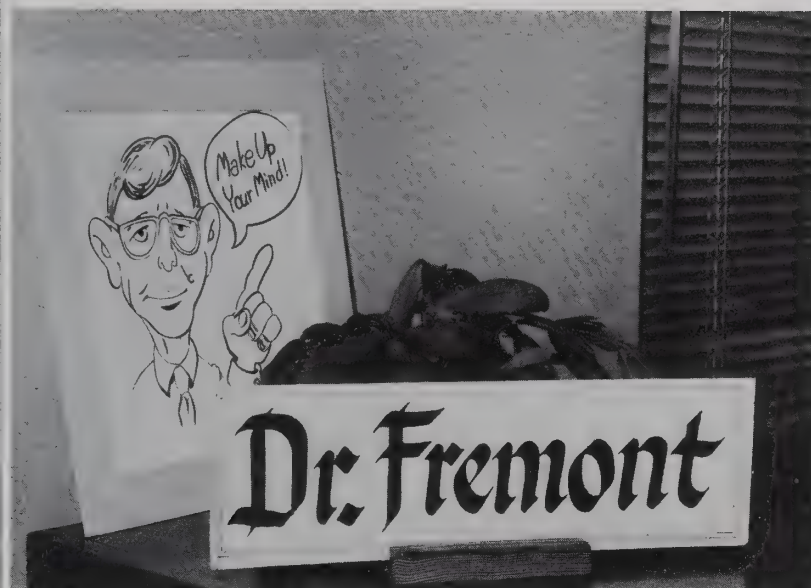

School of Education

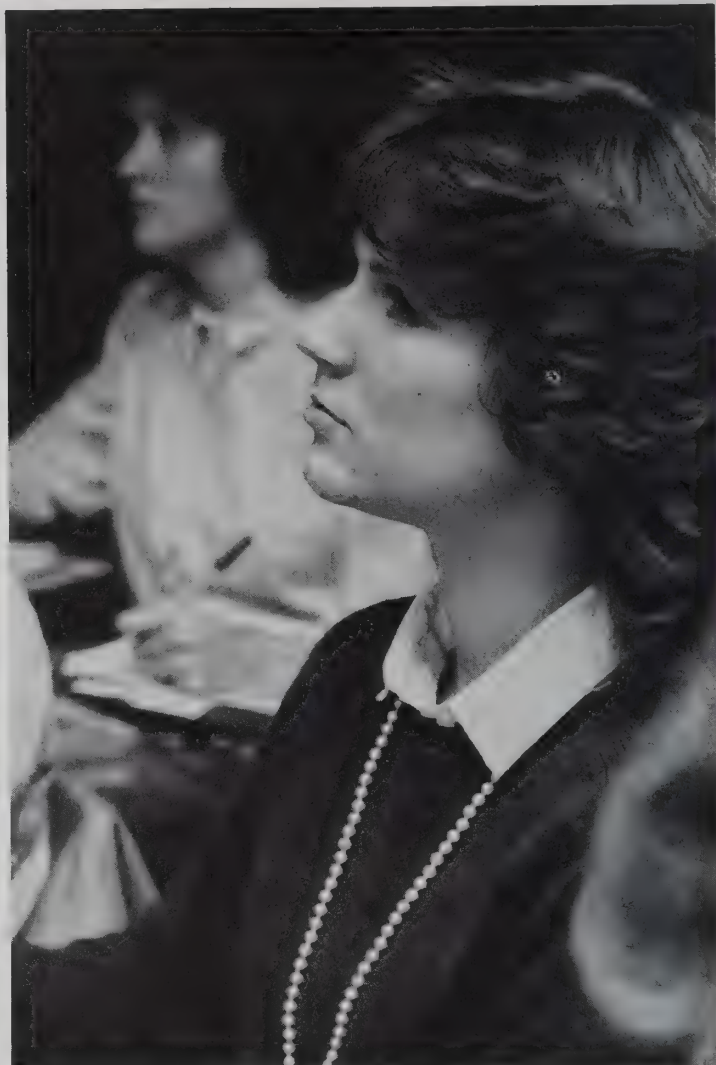

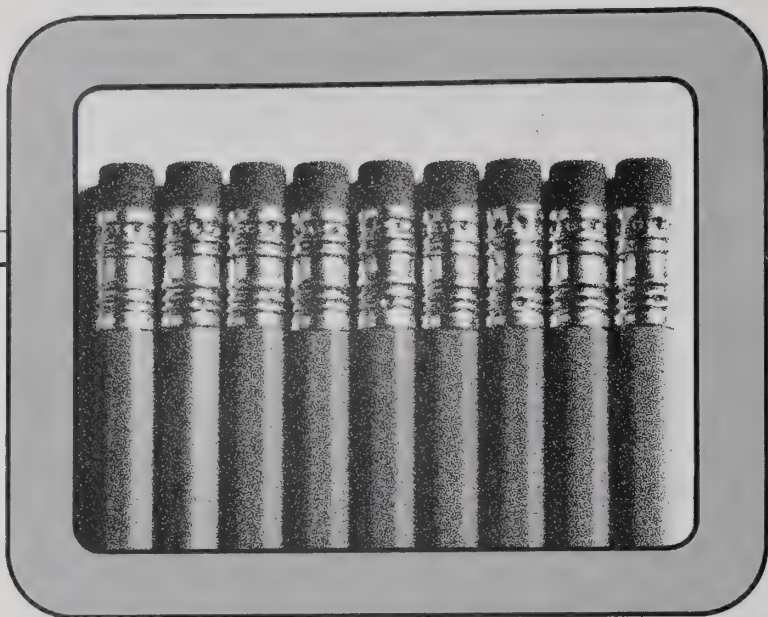

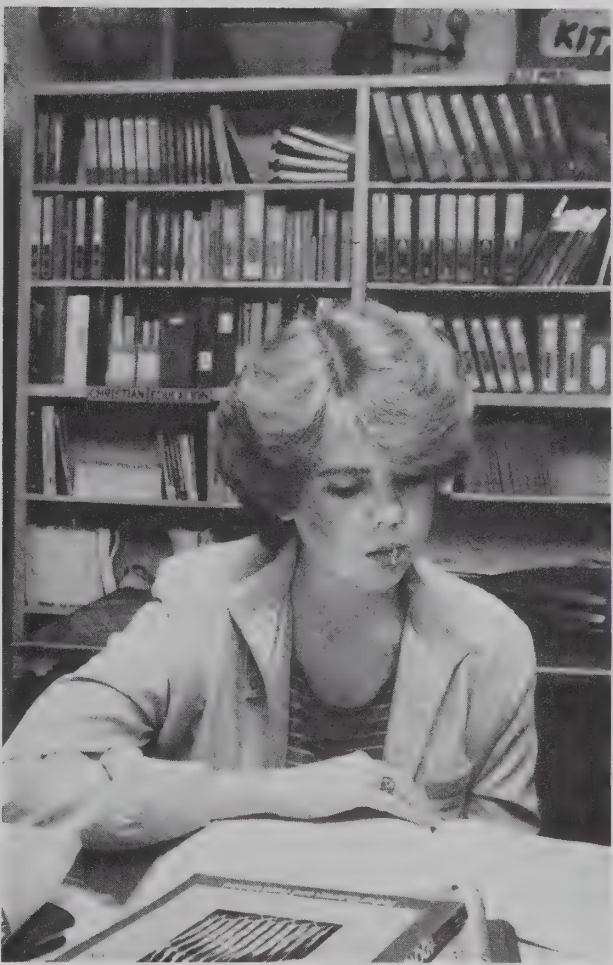

Walter Fremont, Dean

The School of Education provides training for future Christian school teachers, offering majors in elementary education as well as eleven secondary areas. A Bible-based educational philosophy and a semester of directed teaching give each education major a solid foundation for serving the Lord in Christian schools around the country.

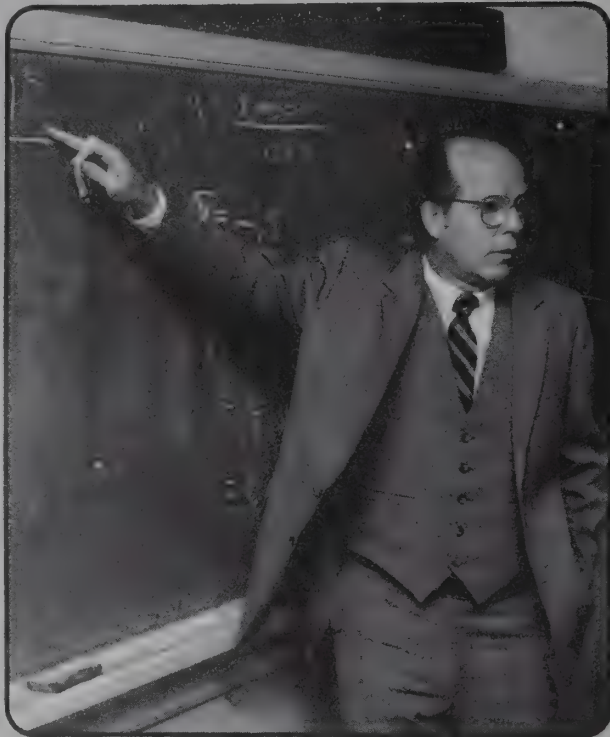

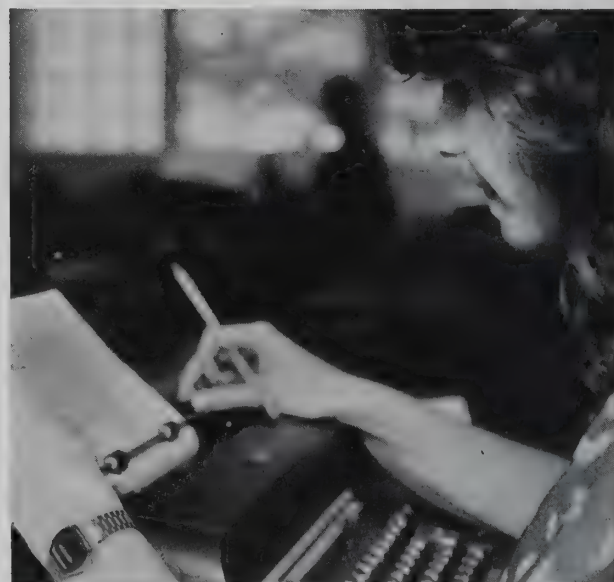

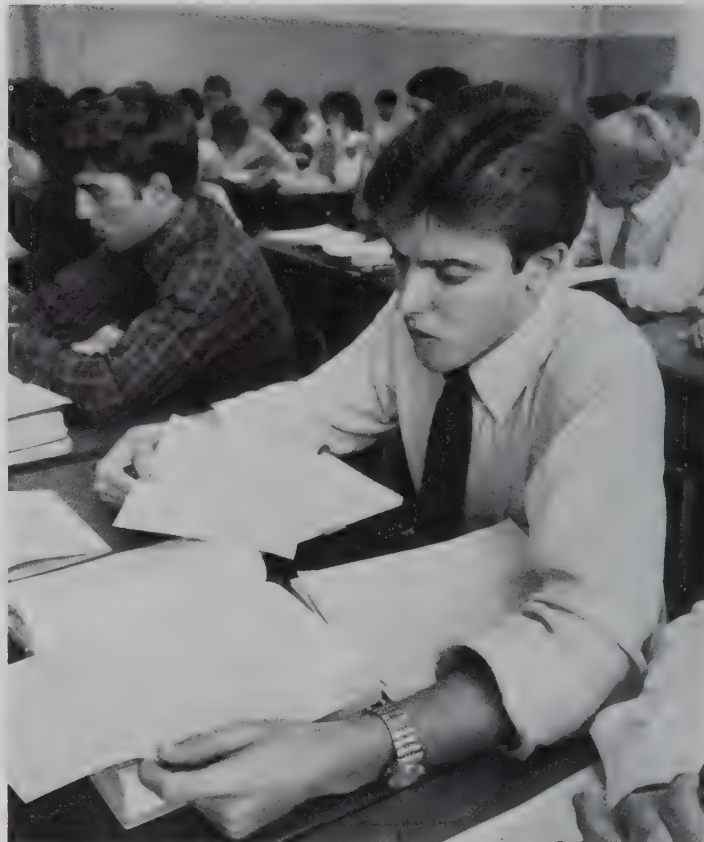

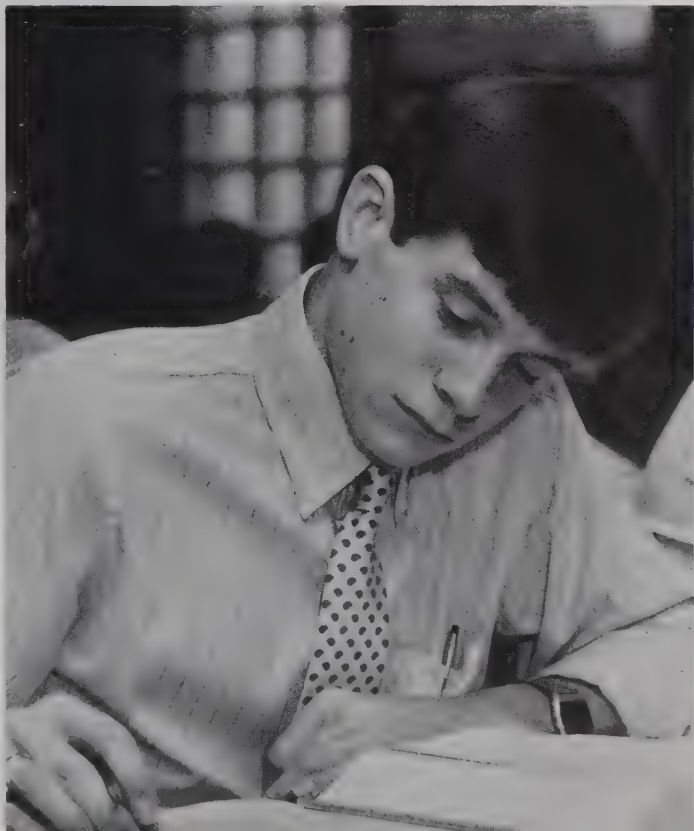

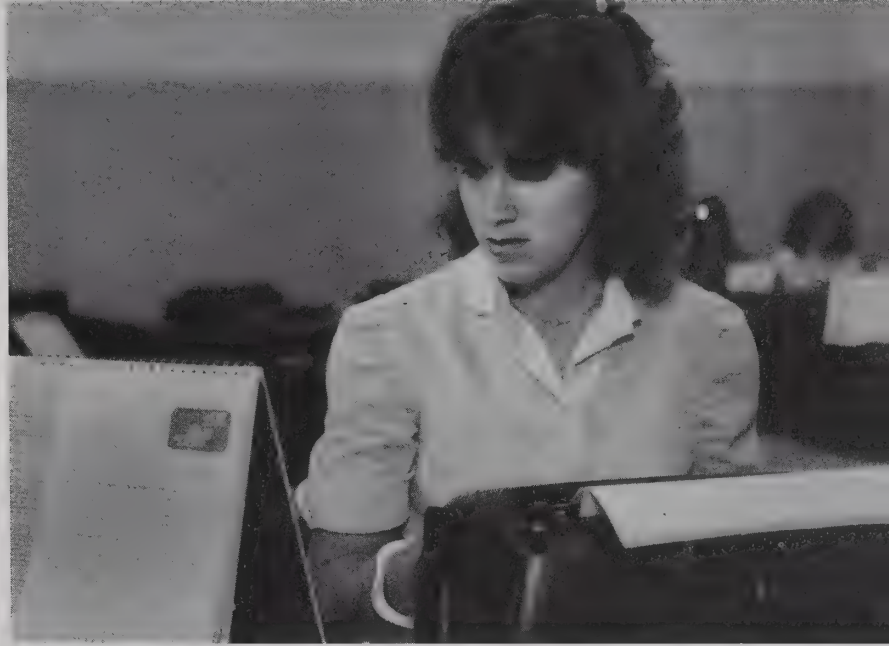

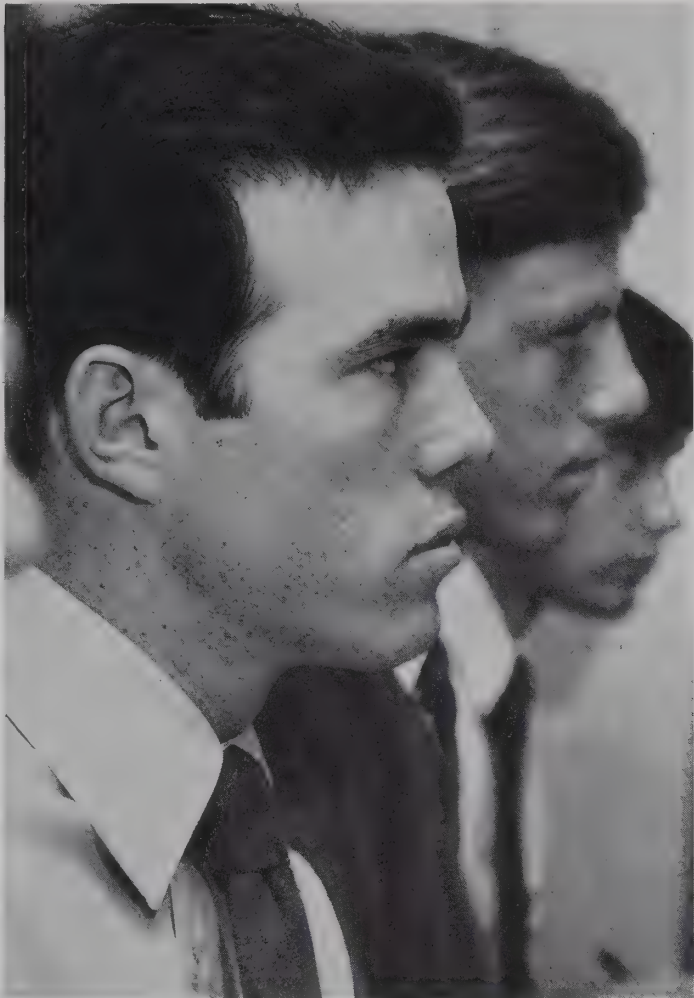

School of Business Administration

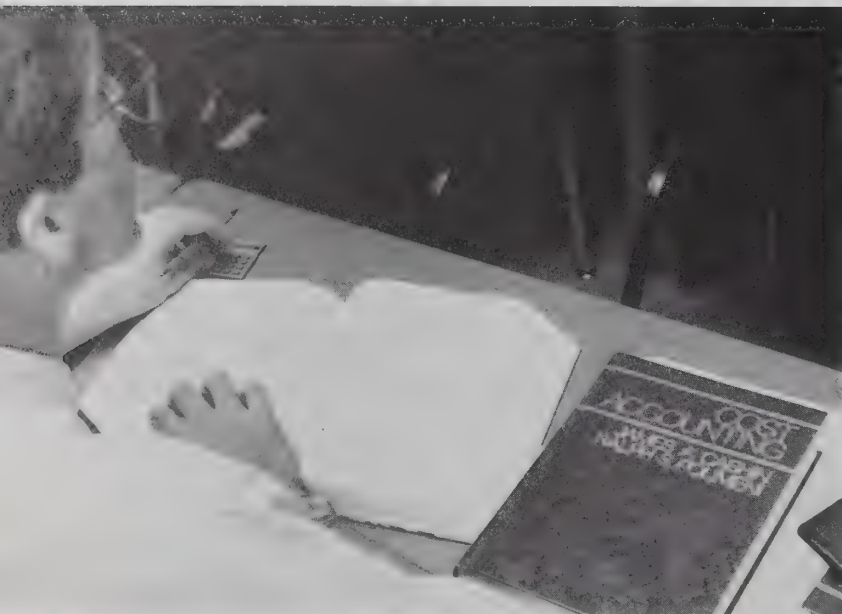

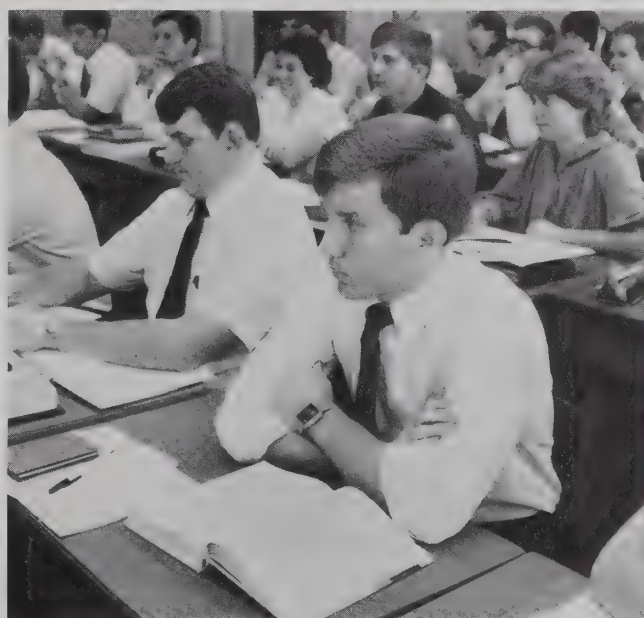

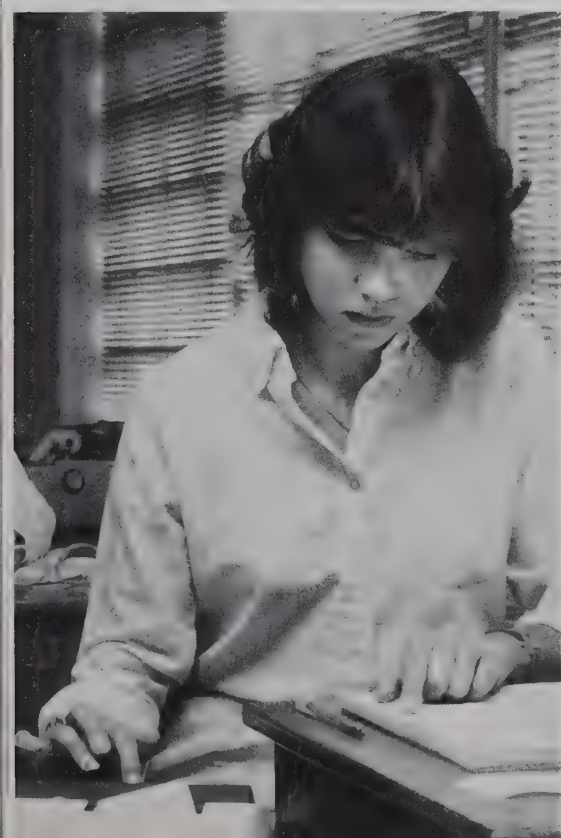

Robert Taylor, Dean

With a dedicated and experienced faculty to teach them, students in the School of Business Administration receive high-quality training with an emphasis on building Christian character. The majors offered in the School—Accounting, Management, and Office Administration—help qualify the student for beginning not only a career but also a ministry. The student goes out well-prepared to earn a living and to serve the Lord in his profession.

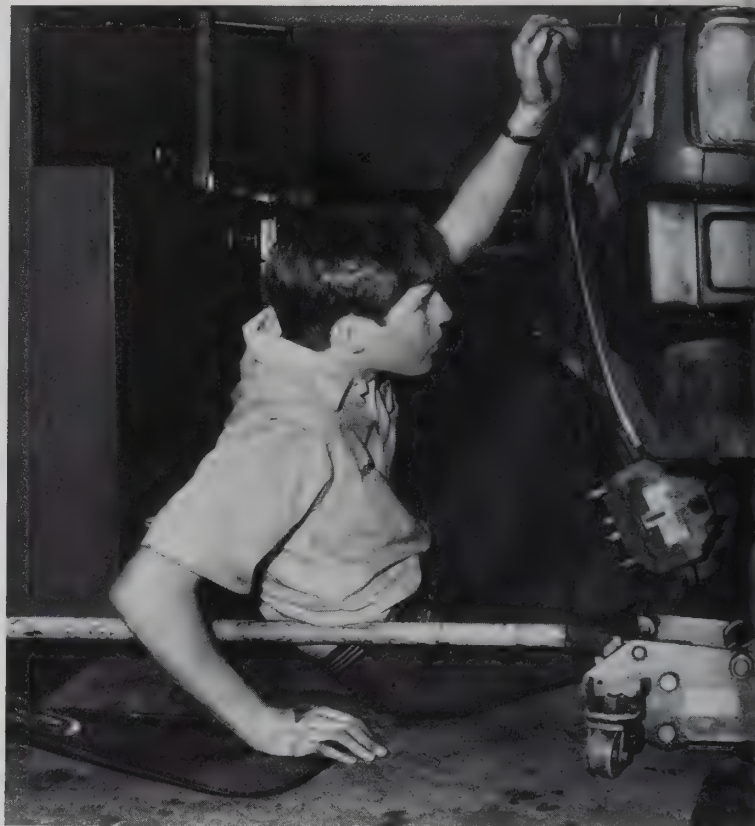

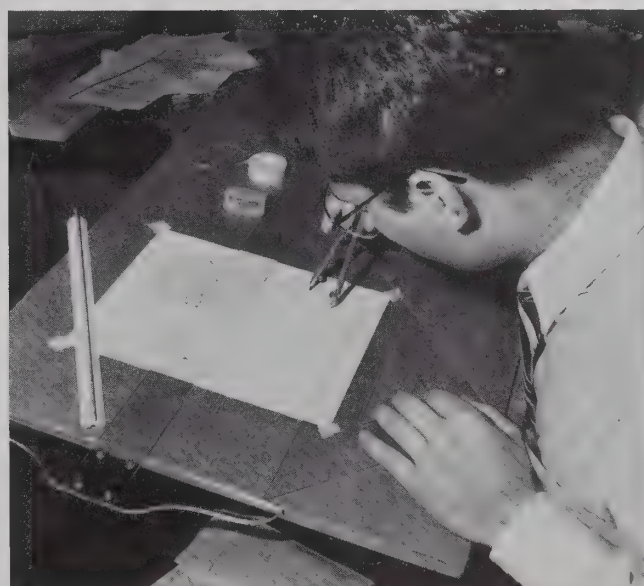

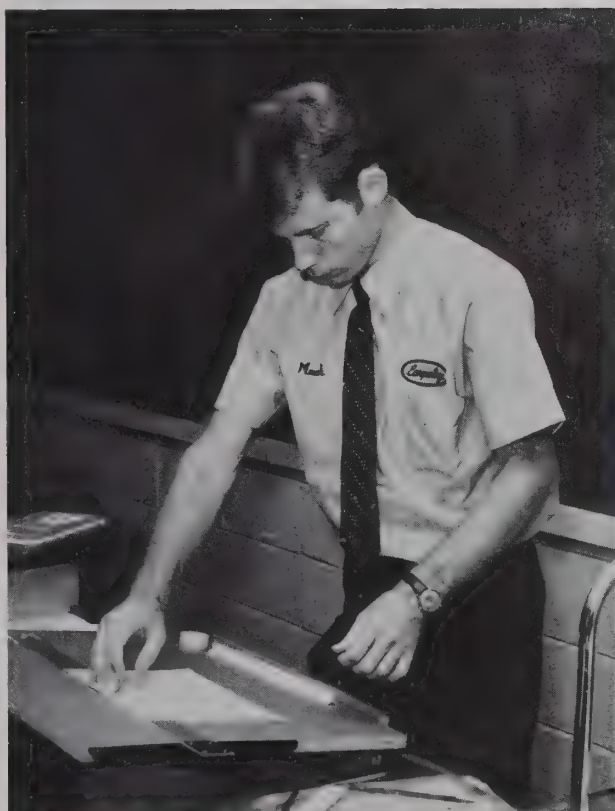

School of Applied Studies

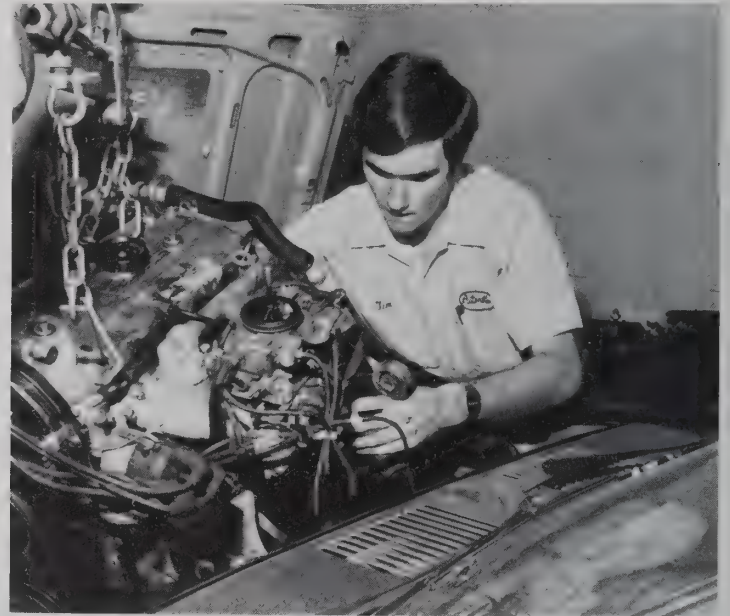

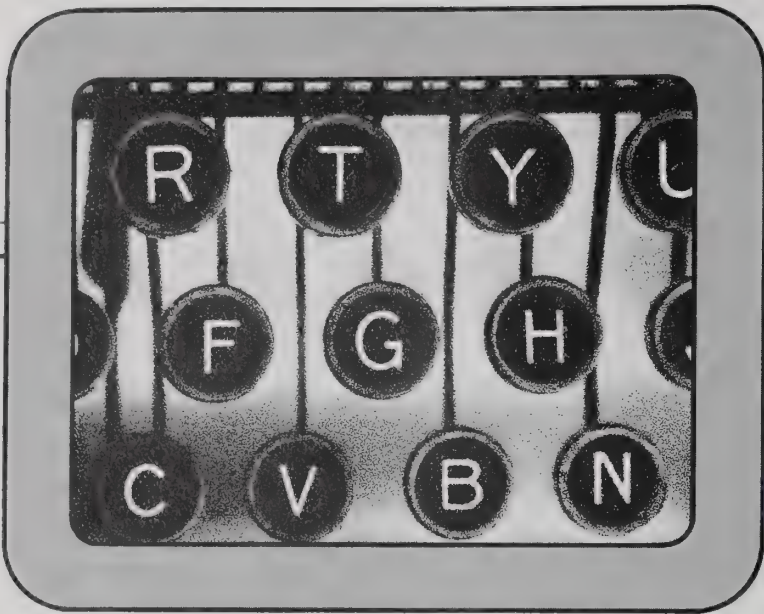

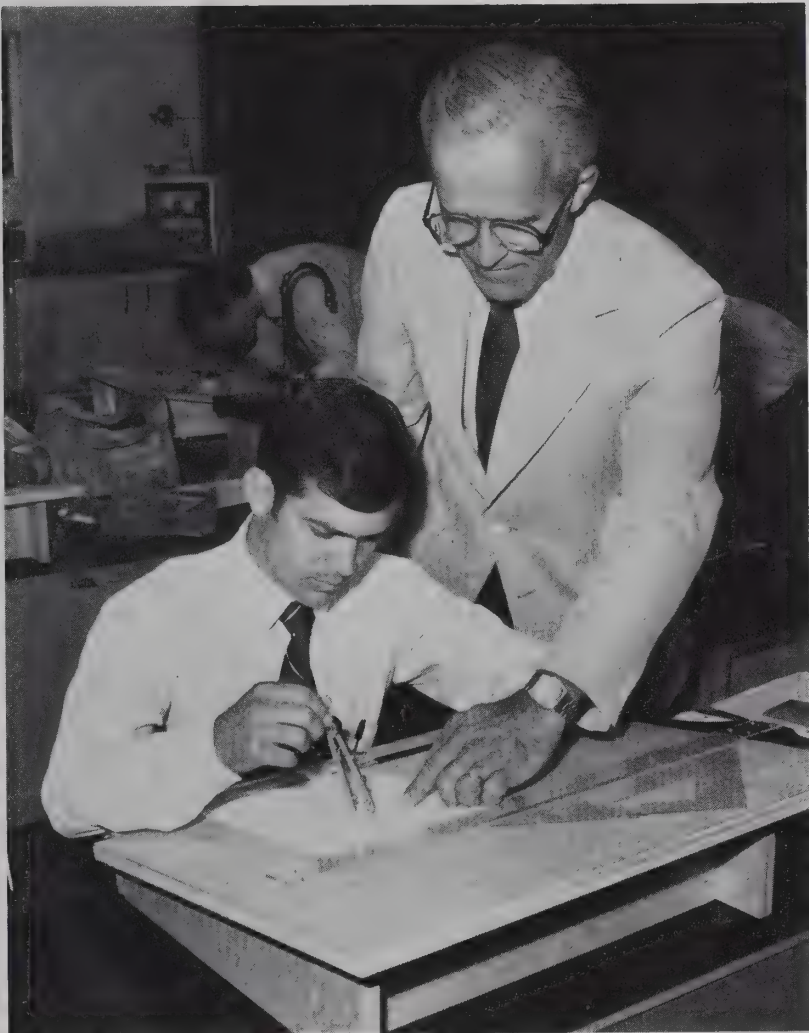

Nelson McGeoch, Dean

The School of Applied Studies houses all of the University's one-, two-, and three-year undergraduate programs. With degrees in Christian Lay Leadership, Day-Care Ministry, Ministerial Training, and Missionary Preparation, the Christian Service Division offers basic academic and Bible training along with courses to help one serve the Lord more effectively. The Trade and Technology Division aims to meet the needs of those gifted with their hands who also want a Christian education by offering courses in Aircraft Maintenance, Automotive Service, Carpentry, Construction Electricity, Diesel Service, General Office Procedures, and Library Technical Service. Known for its family atmosphere, the School of Applied Studies provides students with the basic skills needed to work on the job and to be a successful witness for Christ.

Directed Missionary Training

Each summer many students serve the Lord on summer mission teams sent out under the guidance of University sponsors. The Directed Missionary Training program is primarily designed to give students firsthand experience on the field. A high percentage of those who work on one of these summer teams return to the field after graduation to work with a full-time missionary.

Dr. Earl Nutz's team of thirteen men and women worked with the Saultaux Indians on four of Manitoba's reservations. They held youth camps, conducted daily Bible studies, and visited door-to-door. Some of the men on the team worked with local missionaries, helping to build and repair their buildings. Most important, through their work, the team members were able to become friends with the Saultaux, opening the door to lead many of them to Christ.

The seven members of the Hawaii team, under the direction of Miss Christine Dewey, worked on the islands of Oahu, Kauai, and Hawaii. The team members taught Sunday School, canvassed for local churches, worked in Christian camps, and conducted Bible studies.

Mr. Tony Miller led a team of nineteen students and several faculty and staff members in a ministry to the Mormon-dominated West. In their highly varied ministry, they worked with Neighborhood Bible Time, with missionary pastors in local churches, and with Real Life Ministries at the University of Utah.

Mr. Harry Bain, Candidate Secretary for the Gospel Fellowship Association Missions board, took a team of six students to the island of Guam in the South Pacific. Their primary ministry was working with the Harvest Baptist Church and its associated Christian academy. In addition to helping with classroom construction, they served in the bus ministry, children's church, and an outreach ministry to Guam's twenty-one villages. The church, ministering to a large military contingent, is the only fundamental work for Guam's 112,000 people.

This year for the first time, the University sent out a mission team composed of tradesmen, led by Mr. Don Snyder. The team, consisting of five carpenters and two electricians, went to the King's Ranch in Cody, Wyoming, a Christian home for children from broken families. There they did construction and repair work for the camp and assisted the local church by teaching in its Sunday School and working in its visitation program.

Mrs. Edith Long's team went to West Germany to minister to both the German people and United States military families. They worked with missionaries in many parts of Germany, helping them in their day-to-day work. The team had a valuable look at the life and ministry of a missionary in the field.

The twenty-one members of the Nova Scotia team, led by Mr. Nelson McGeogh, worked for their tenth summer alongside International Christian Missions and the Bible Baptist Church in Kingstown, Nova Scotia. The primary goal of the team was to help start permanent works in areas of the province that did not have a gospel outreach. Many former team members have returned to Nova Scotia and have already started or are preparing to start churches there.

24 In an 8-1 decision, the United States Supreme Court ruled against Bob Jones University in its bid to regain its tax-exempt status. The ruling's definition of charitable (and thereby tax-exempt) institutions as those institutions which comply with "national public policy," sounded an ominous warning to religious institutions nationwide.

August

1-7 The third World Congress of Fundamentalists, held at Bob Jones University this year, was attended by over 4,500 pastors and laymen. These Christians from around the world gathered at the University in August to hear some of the great men of the Faith speak on "The Authority of Scripture."

Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving week is one of the most anticipated weeks of the school year. Prospective students, alumni, family, and friends all converge on the University for the holidays, nearly doubling the population of the campus. This year a wide variety of activities, ranging from a Shakespearean comedy to the Turkey Bowl, provided both students and visitors with an enjoyable week as they honored the Lord for his goodness to them.

For fine arts lovers, Thanksgiving was a veritable feast. The University Classic Player's four performances of the Shakespearean comedy Much Ado About Nothing and the University Oratorio Society's stirring performances of Brahms' Requiem provided several evenings of entertainment. Unusual Films premiered their latest production, a new University promotional film called Mount Up With Wings. In addition, they scheduled several showings of the newly released medical missions film Beyond the Night and a showing of Sheffey.

For those interested in sports, Thanksgiving was filled with events. On Wednesday night, the Turkey Bowl pep rally encouraged many to turn out and cheer for their favorite league and to watch the annual wrestling championship that followed. Because of a rainy Thanksgiving afternoon, the soccer championship was held on Friday. This year the Zeta Chi Tornadoes defeated the Omega Lions 3-0 for their third Turkey Bowl victory in four years. The final run of the cross-country season was held during half-time of the Turkey Bowl.

Most importantly, the University family and friends gave thanks to the Lord. Throughout the Thanksgiving weekend, God and His love were at the center of every activity.

Christmas

December came, and the students' thoughts turned from studies to getting rides home, planning trips to see friends, and spending the holidays with the family. With the possible exception of Convocation, no event is more anticipated on the campus. As the students felt the pressure of due dates and last minute tests, they found many enjoyable activities to help them relax.

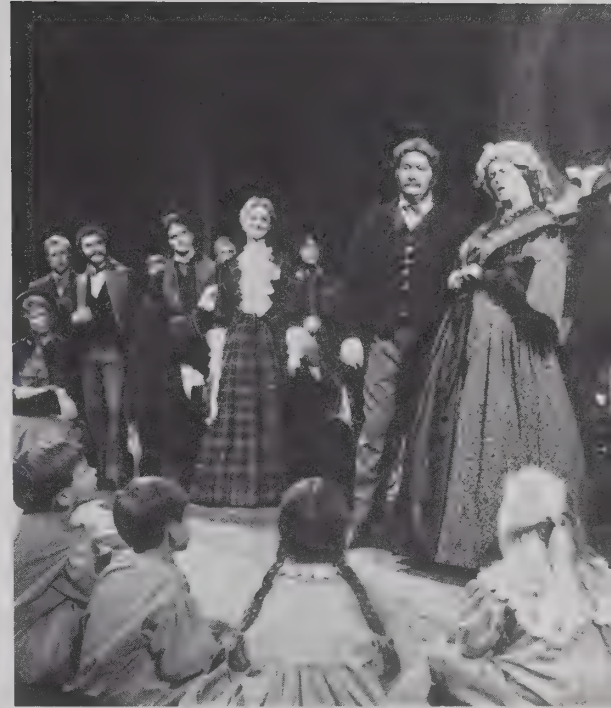

On December 3 the talented Academy choirs and orchestra gave their ever popular Christmas concert. For those who wanted to listen and sing, an instrumental group from the Symphonic Band provided the music for a Christmas carol sing in the Student Center mall. Many of the campus organizations had Christmas parties, but perhaps the largest was the annual Association of Christian Teachers party, two hours of fun, food, and fellowship for ACT members.

The annual Soulwinning Conference, held the first week of December, helped to prepare the students for the opportunities they would have to witness for the Lord during vacation. The speaker for this year's Conference was Dr. Jerry Sivnksty.

Although coming back from vacation was not nearly so anticipated as leaving, the students returned to face their exams and the second semester rested and with a new perspective on the value of their training.

Bible Conference

With classes suspended during the week and with many family and friends visiting, Bible Conference gave the University family the opportunity to relax and hear some of the world's foremost Fundamentalists preach their best messages.

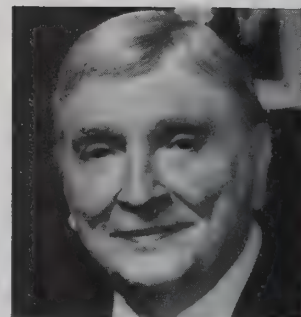

Each day began with a short prayer service. After a brief challenge by one of the speakers, members of the student body, faculty, staff, and visiting pastors led the audience in prayer. In the services that followed at 10:30 a.m., 2:00 p.m., and 7:30 p.m., the visiting speakers delivered the messages that the Lord had laid on their hearts. Between services there was ample time for dating, watching softball games, catching up on studies, or just relaxing. Wednesday of Bible Conference was designated Parents' Day, and mothers and fathers were treated to bookstore discounts and a dormitory open house.

A special event associated with Bible Conference is "Let's Get Acquainted Days." Immediately following Bible Conference week, these two days gave prospective students the opportunity to sample University life by living in the dormitory and visiting classes.

Bible Conference week left the University family relaxed and spiritually refreshed. The Conference was a welcome break in the semester that gave the students renewed vision and vitality and a new outlook on their training.

Much Ado About Nothing

The University Classic Players presented Much Ado About Nothing at Thanksgiving this year. Faculty and students performed in the biannual Shakespearean production, directed this year by Dr. Ron Shields. The comedy tells the tale of two young lords (Don Ryerson and David Burke) and their attempts to win the love of two elusive young ladies (Karen Duncan and Sharon Woodruff). Despite efforts by the villain of the play (Leonard Pine) to break up the matches, the play ends with a wedding. Audiences enjoyed the production from Wednesday through Saturday evenings over the Thanksgiving weekend.

Amati String Quartet

Andrea Amati, the sixteenth-century violin craftsman, began a family tradition of excellence, and today the Amati violin is known for its perfection of design and clarity of tone. With this in mind, the Amati String Quartet took its name from the maker of the 1679 instrument played by violinist Juan Carlos Rybin. The Quartet, which performed in November for the University family and guests, displayed once again the talent and mastery that have earned for them a reputation of Amati excellence.

Charlotte Symphony Orchestra

Horacio Gutierrez, Pianist

The University family and guests enjoyed two hours of fine music when the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra performed for the first concert of the Artist Series on September 20. With Leo Driehuys directing, Horacio Gutierrez joined the dynamic and experienced orchestra as soloist for Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1. The seventy-member orchestra concluded the performance with Rimsky-Korsakov's exotic Scheherazade Suite.

Welsh Choir of Cardiff

April 30 was an evening to be remembered as the Welsh Choir of Cardiff performed before thousands of students and guests. Founded in 1964, the Choir is recognized worldwide for its musical talents. Under the direction of its conductor, Richard E. Jones, the Choir demonstrated its versatile singing abilities and gave an enjoyable performance.

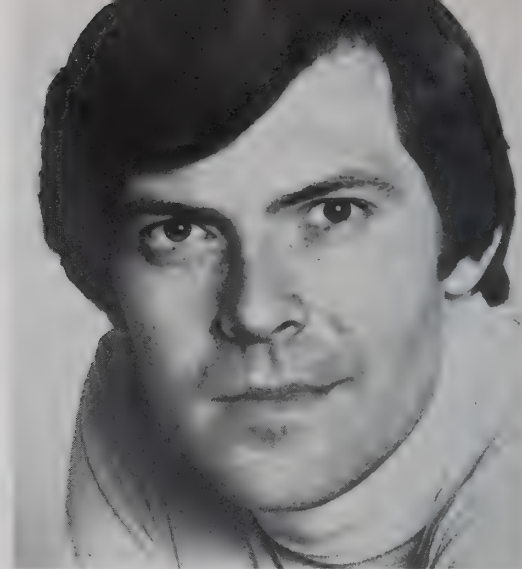

In 1970 the world-famous harpist, Aristid von Wurtzler, founded the New York Harp Ensemble. Having performed hundreds of concerts, including ones in Italy, Germany, the Philippines, India, Brazil, and China, the four harpists and their narrator delighted their audience in the Founder's Memorial Amphitheater on February 2. Their perfection and versatility gave their listeners a greater appreciation for the musical beauty of the harp.

Faust

The University Opera Association performed Gounod's French masterpiece this year with guest artists Marilyn Brustadt as Marguerite, Gordon Greer as Faust, and Edward Crafts as Mephistopheles. Faust, first performed in 1859, is based on Goethe's play which tells the story of an aged philosopher who in frustration foolishly sells his own soul to Mephistopheles, the devil, in exchange for youth and the love of Marguerite. The opera ends tragically with the death of Marguerite and Faust's losing his soul without gaining youth or love. The performance was enhanced by the accompaniment of the University orchestra and a chorus composed of University students.

Instrumental and Choral Activities

Students involved in musical groups on campus this year gained valuable experience performing in numerous concerts and recitals. The University orchestra accompanied the fall performance of Brahms' Requiem and the opera Faust, and the symphonic band gave a concert each semester. Other instrumental groups that performed included the woodwind, flute, trumpet, and trombone choirs. Church choir sang in the morning worship services, and the University chorus, women's chorus, and madrigal singers performed in concerts and recitals throughout the year.

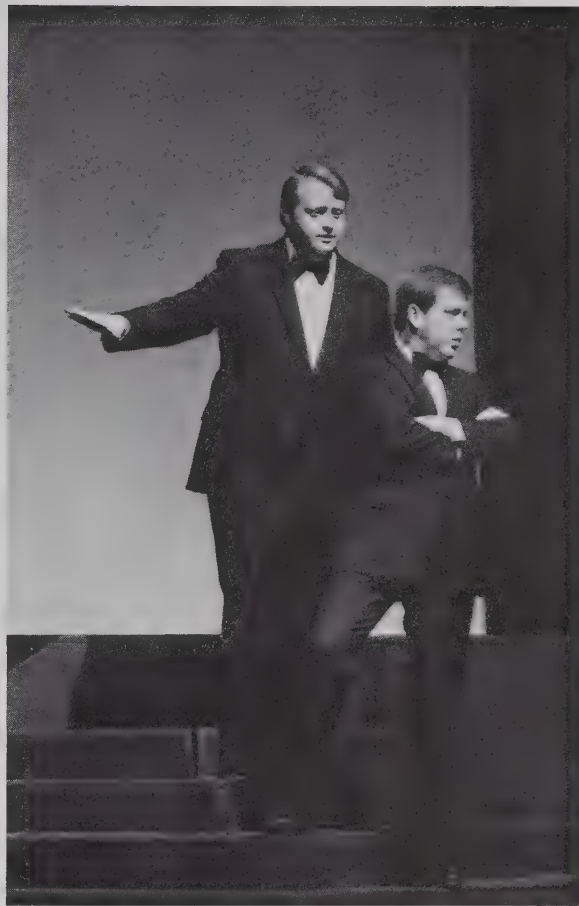

Vespers

The production of the Vesper programs twice monthly is always the result of many long hours of practice and rehearsal. The hard work and dedication of the cast and stage crew this year made each program a special blessing. Biblical messages spoke to those who watched, communicating such themes as "The Good Shepherd" and "Almost Persuaded." Instrumental groups and three Vesper choirs performed regularly with speech faculty and students, who recited Scripture and poetry and performed dramatic readings.

Founder's Vespers

During Founder's Week three special vesper performances honored the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Dr. Bob Jones, Sr. "A Fire Was Kindled," directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards, included a film depicting Dr. Bob's childhood and a brush-arbor scene dramatizing his first evangelistic meeting held when he was fourteen years old. The program left the audience impressed with Dr. Bob's strong character and his fire for God that never burned out.

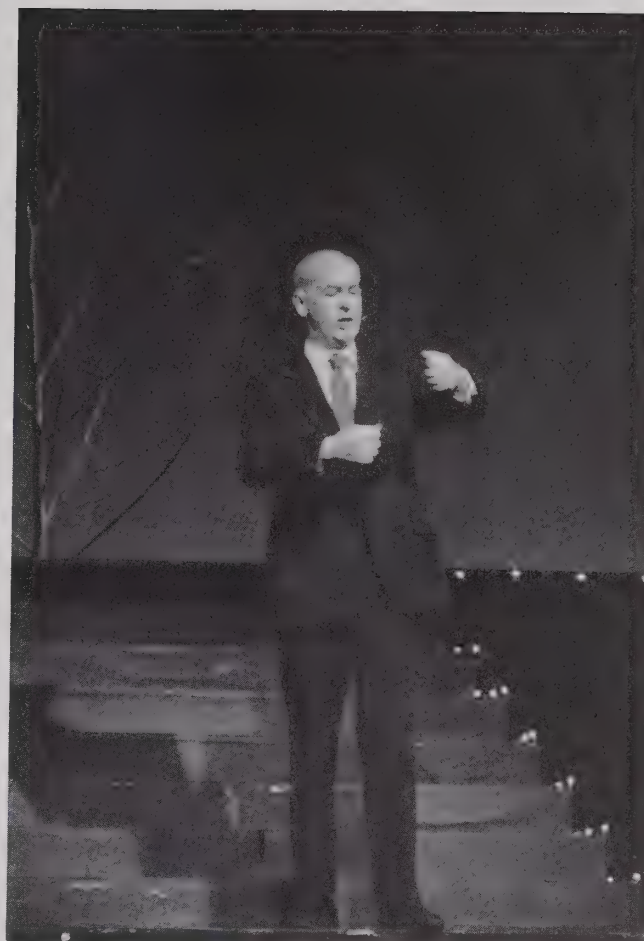

Christmas Vespers

"A Celebration of Joy," directed by Mr. Don Ryerson of the speech faculty, presented the festivities of Christmas in an old-fashioned atmosphere. The setting was a nineteenth-century home lavishly decorated for the gaiety of the season and the coming of carolers. Amid the celebration, the message of Christ's birth was proclaimed through song, scripture, and story. Mr. Pratt gave an inspiring reading titled "The Other Wiseman," and the program closed with the combined choirs singing "O Come, All Ye Faithful," accompanied by the orchestra.

Ensembles

Ensembles of students talented in music and speech travel to churches around the country, spreading the gospel of Christ's salvation. Through their testimony, the ensembles also demonstrate the quality education offered at Bob Jones University. By traveling with an ensemble, students have the opportunity to win the lost to Christ and to use their talents for God's glory.

Show My People

The University has been broadcasting the truth of God's Word to homes from coast to coast since 1977. The thirty-minute broadcast, "Show My People," is currently carried on thirty-two television stations. Produced on campus by faculty, staff, and students, the program aims to show God's purpose and plan to God's people. Through the years, the broadcast has also been a vital tool in delivering the message of salvation to the unsaved and acquainting many people with the godly emphasis of the University. God has richly blessed the preaching of Dr. Bob III and the music of the television choir and other ensembles.

Art Gallery

The Bob Jones University Art Gallery displays a world-renowned collection of sacred art in an atmosphere of peaceful beauty. Wood paneling and richly-hued carpets enhance the original paintings by many Old Masters from various countries including Italy, Spain, Holland, France, and Germany. Visitors can enjoy an afternoon stroll through the thirty galleries whose paintings are arranged chronologically according to country from the Middle Ages to the nineteenth century. The Gallery also houses the Bowen Bible Lands Collection as well as a number of antique furniture pieces, ranging from Italian chests of early sixteenth century to chairs and ornate cupboards.

Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty,

The BJU ministerial class continues the soulwinning tradition of Dr. Bob, Sr., and his original preacher boys. Each week the men of the ministerial class take the gospel to jails, nursing homes, churches, and children's Bible clubs. At Thanksgiving this year they gave out 145 baskets of food to needy families in the Greenville area.

Extension

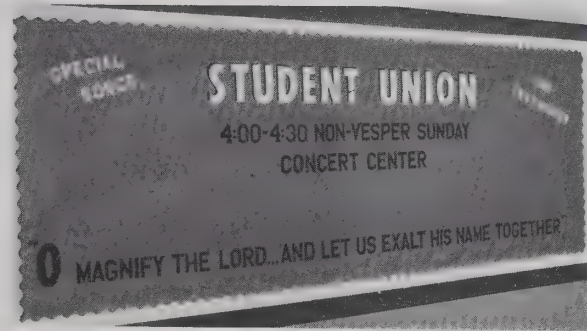

In Mark 16:15 Christ instructs His disciples to "go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Each week hundreds of students visit area nursing homes, child evangelism clubs, jails, churches, hospitals, and colleges to tell others about Christ. Through these ministries the students have led many to the Lord and have developed lifelong patterns of service for Christ.

It serves to encourage students and to establish unity within the student body.

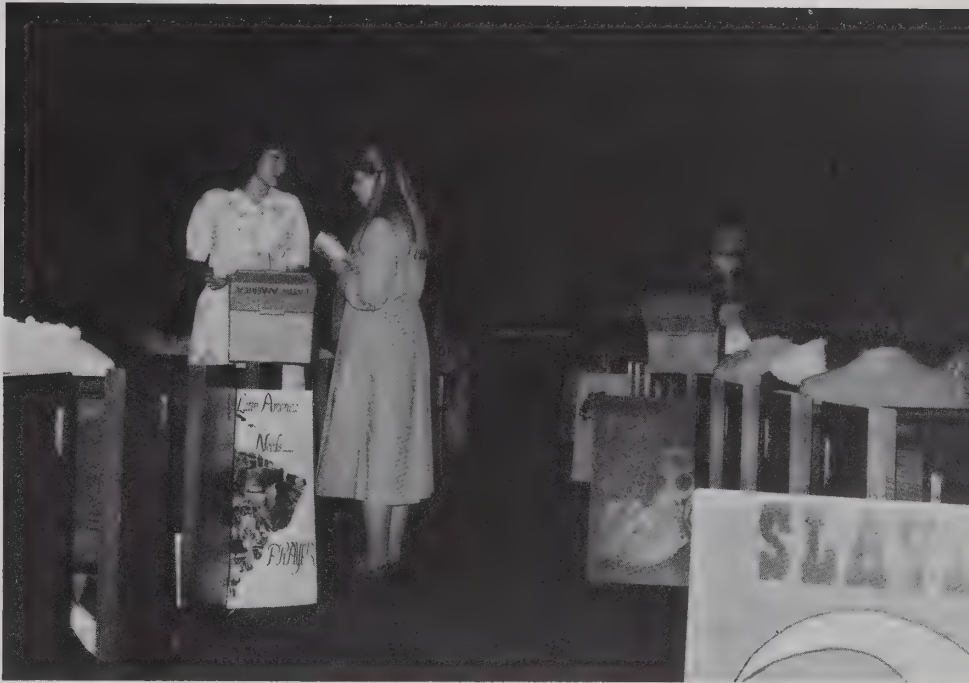

Mission Prayer Band

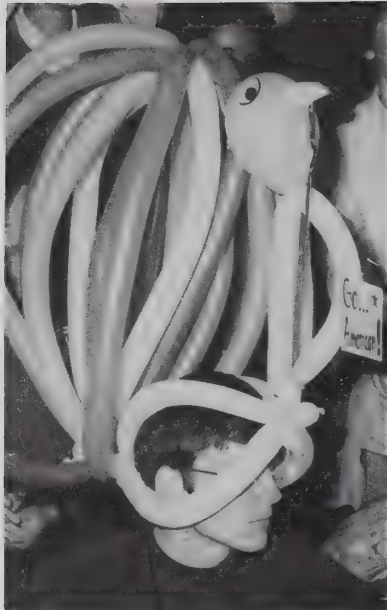

Students concerned for missionary work learned by experience in Mission Prayer Band this year that "the effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16). Weekdays after supper women met in the War Memorial Chapel and men in the Alumni Building to pray for God's servants in eight different areas of the world. Combined meetings on Saturdays featured films about missionaries and mission fields, presentations by the summer mission teams, and special speakers. Throughout the year, faithful attenders of Mission Prayer Band saw their diligent efforts rewarded as missionaries reported the Lord's hand at work in their ministries.

Students' Wives Fellowship

The Students' Wives Fellowship not only encourages the wives of students in their daily living but also helps foster new friendships. This year's meetings focused on several attributes of Proverbs' "virtuous woman" including her kindness, temperance, and willingness to work with her hands. The SWF is also well-known for its annual bake sales which raise money for the Bible Conference offering. By sharing their interests, talents, and time, these students' wives learn how to help their husbands better both now and in their future ministries.

Association of Christian Teachers

ACT meetings inform future teachers about different teaching opportunities and discuss some of the problems and challenges they may face. This year the meetings concentrated on special education. In one meeting, Mrs. Joss gave a lecture on teaching the deaf, and in February Mr. Luttrell discussed opportunities for working in the Special Olympics. Another special session prepared education majors for the Christian School Principals' Recruitment Conference.

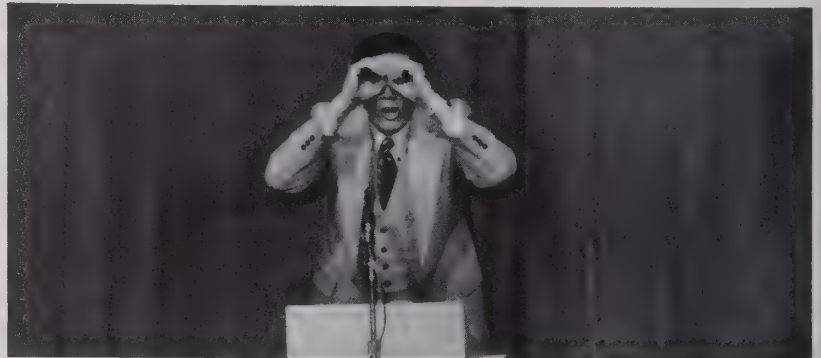

University Business Association

Jim McCrudden, Treas. Invest. Club ; Janet Willoughby, V. Pres. Office Admin.; Jon Sparkman, V. Pres. Accounting; Dave Sparkman, Pres. Invest. Club; Tony Bryson, President; Gina Edwards, Secretary; John Spencer, V. Pres. Management; Steve Sanders, V. Pres. Community Service

Promoting Christian business ethics, professional competence, and the free enterprise system, the University Business Association guides business students as they plan for their future careers. The Accounting, Management, and Secretarial Studies Divisions held meetings to inform students about the career opportunities in their majors. The new Community Services Division of the Association enabled students to provide professional services such as tax consultations and to share their Christian testimony with individuals in the community. Participating in the UBA strengthens both the student's character and his resolve to work for the honor of Christ.

University Home Economics Association

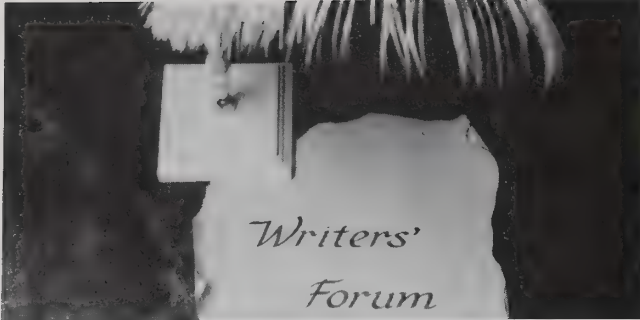

Cheri Hill, Sec./Treas.; Jane Hay, First Vice President; Esther Burnett, President; Anita Estes, Second Vice President

The University Home Economics Association introduces home economics majors to a variety of career opportunities. In October the students traveled to the Regional South Carolina Home Economics Convention in Greenville for a fashion show and a luncheon and to the State Convention held in Columbia, South Carolina in February. At one meeting a free-lance home economist spoke about her travels as a specialist in the microwave oven industry. The highlight of the year was the Christmas Display at which students exhibited clothing projects, crafts, and holiday foods. All of the UHEA activities give the students exposure to the various jobs available in fashion, nutrition, and interior design.

University Writers' Forum

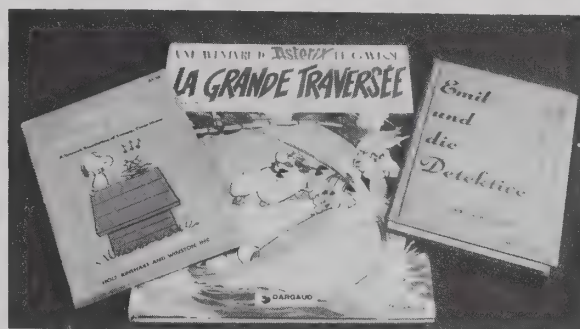

The Writers' Forum helps potential writers improve their style and gives them hints for getting their work published. In the semi-monthly meetings this year, faculty, staff, and guest speakers discussed a variety of topics: Frost's poetry, word etymologies, juvenile fiction, word processors, and the Christian philosophy of writing. Special workshops gave students opportunities to hear a second opinion on their short stories and poetry. In addition, students competed in the annual writing contest. The winners of each category were then announced at the spring outing. As the students improved their writing skills, they also recognized their responsibility to be effective Christian writers.

Olivia Webster, President; Mark Absher, Sgt. at Arms; Barbara Bell, Vice President; Sharon Johnston, Treasurer; Robin Efaw, Secretary

Language Club

The language clubs take students beyond the memorization of grammar and vocabulary to teach them more about the country and people of the language they are learning. Spanish Club meetings included a demonstration of how to make a pinata, singspirations, and a missionary speaker from Mexico. In French Club, students saw films about France, learned folk songs, and heard native speakers discuss French language and culture. In German Club the German team reported on its summer ministry. Students also saw slides of Germany and played German games. The three clubs combined for a fall party and again in February for a presentation of plays in each language.

Kim Yost, German V. Pres.; Albert Rodriguez, Spanish V. Pres.;
Karis Matthia, President; Lorinda Hayes, French V. Pres.

Unusual Films

In November Unusual Films released its most recent production, a nineteen-minute promotional film for the University. Mount Up With Wings is an animated, full color film acquainting prospective students with the academics and campus life at BJU.

Unusual Films' productions have been viewed all across the nation and in many foreign countries. During its thirty-three years of existence, Unusual Films has used the most powerful medium known to man to reach thousands of lives with the message of Christ.

WBJU

For the past seventeen years, WBJU has met the needs of its on-campus listening audience. "Your Information Plus Radio Station" broadcasts daily programs of news, sports, weather, music, advertisements, and campus announcements. WBJU also gives radio and television majors opportunities to practice writing, producing, and announcing radio programs. The station constantly strives to increase its broadcast quality while keeping the students informed about the campus, the country, and the world.

Alumni Association

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

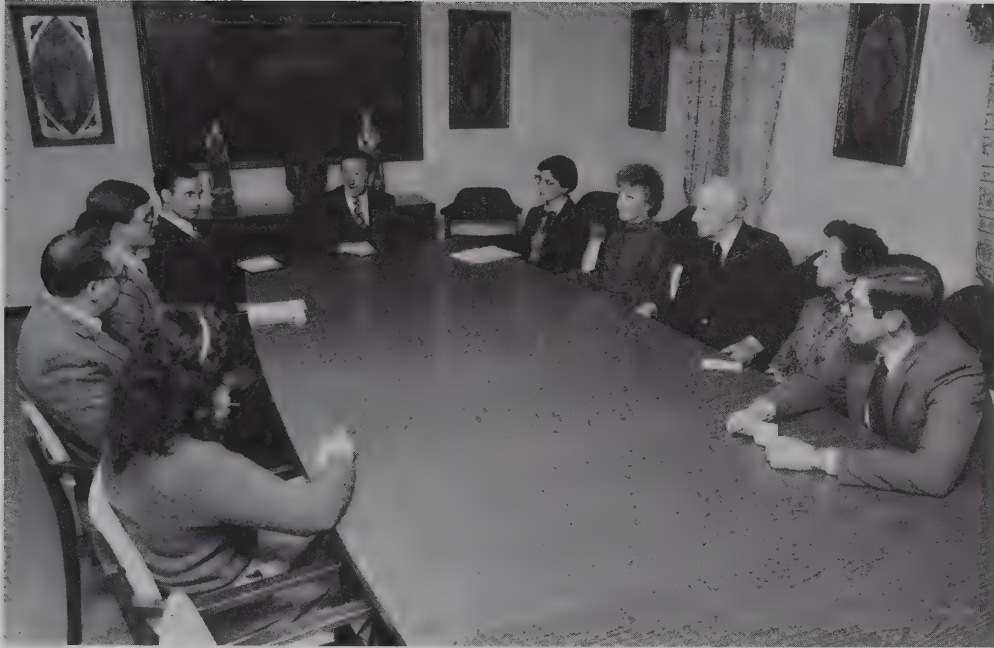

Nineteen eighty-four marks the fiftieth anniversary of the Bob Jones University Alumni Association, a group of over eight thousand loyal and supportive graduates. Through the years the Association has actively supported the University by donating funds for the Alumni Stadium, the Amphitheater seats, annual scholarships for alumni children, and numerous other projects. The faithful prayers of these alumni uphold the University, while their testimonies help the school maintain a reputation of excellence.

Dr. Bud Bierman, Dir. of Alumni Affairs; Mr. Willie Thompson, Third V. Pres.; Mrs. Iris Jackson, Sec./Treas.; Mr. Mike Fowler, President; Mr. Bill Moose, First V. Pres.; Mr. Dan Olinger, Second V. Pres.

The Making of a VINTAGE

Most students regard the creation of the Vintage as a mysterious process that occurs behind a locked door in the Alumni Building. Many fail to realize the complexity of the work that begins more than a year before the presentation of the new Vintage during Commencement Week.

With the appointment of a new editor last April, the selection of new staff members began. Following many late-night staff discussions and in conjunction with administrative advisors, the theme was selected. With that hurdle cleared, the real work of finding new ideas to make the book fresh and different from its predecessors began. Many suggestions were advanced, suggestions for adding new sections and deleting old ones or altering their format. The ideas actually incorporated represent several departures from the traditional: the addition of the Events and World Events sections, candid photos replacing the formal shots in Fine Arts, an increased use of graphics, pictures in the index, and many lesser changes that give this Vintage its unique personality.

For the Vintage staff, the first day of school in September was the first day of work: pictures had to be taken from day one. Our book could not have been assembled without the aid of Miss Alice Cromley, Photographic Coordinator, and the work of Mr. Ramsey, Mr. Block, Mr. Calnon, and the student photographers. Together they processed more than 10,000 pictures for the Vintage. From September to March, much of their time was spent in taking pictures, printing 4x5 proofs, and making the final printed-to-size pictures that would be sent to the printer. The offices of the Dean of Men, Dean of Women, and Dean of Students put in many hours approving the pictures selected for publication.

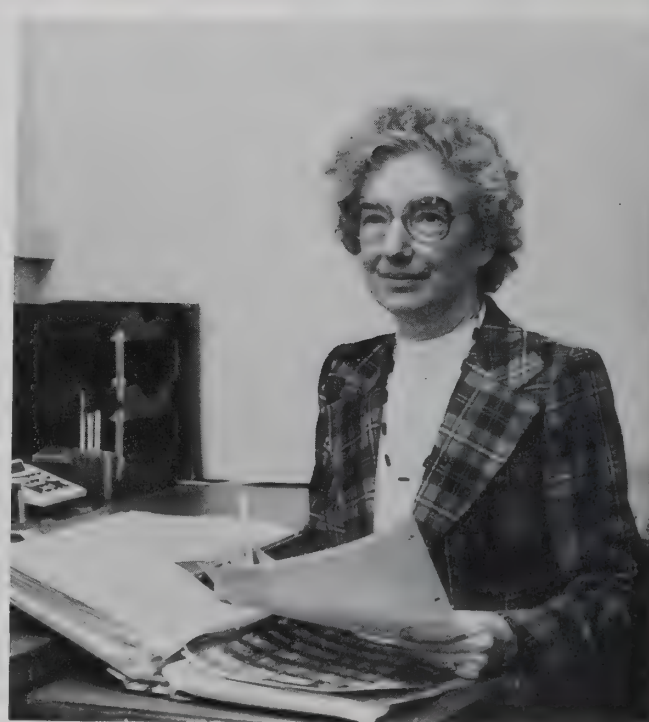

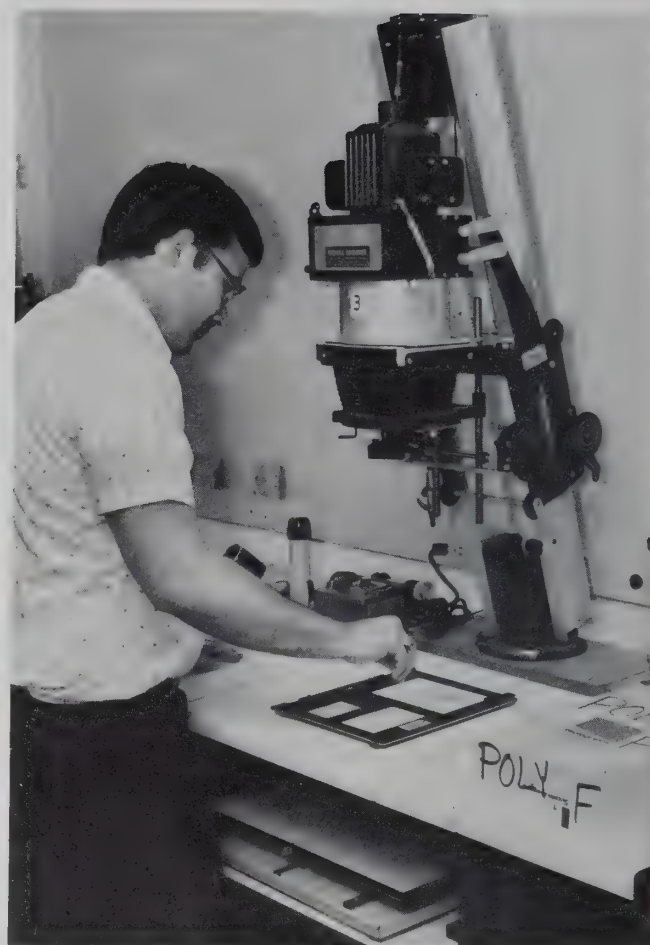

Miss Solomon of the English faculty advised the literary staff on the writing of the descriptive text. All the copy, whether headline, caption, or descriptive text, was typeset by the University Print Shop. The hard work of Mr. Hagans, Mr. Mehus, and the Print Shop staff made possible the high quality of typesetting in the Vintage. A look at the Senior Glossary should convey the difficulty of their task and ours in typesetting and proofreading the copy in this volume.

The art department also played an important role in the making of the yearbook. Mr. Bopp's guidance and Mr. Appleman's design talents (the cover and introduction are his work) have been invaluable in making this book possible. Mr. Perez of the Art Agency spent many hours working on the graphics boards for our book.

Mr. Roy Hickman, of Alabama Engraving Company, has coordinated the production of the Vintage since 1927, when the first book was published. His company produces the plates from which the yearbook will later be printed. Herff-Jones, of Montgomery, Alabama, produces the cover and does the actual printing and binding.

The work of the staff itself defies neat description. If asked, each staff member would tell a different story of Vintage. Some experiences, like proofreading and seemingly endless days of taking portraits, we all shared, but each section had its own unique battles to fight. Societies and Sports had the difficult task of getting good pictures from every society. The Class section had to be organized, and every name checked and double-checked. Fine Arts had to plan carefully to get pictures of the University's numerous musical groups. The Literary and Events staff wrote, and wrote, and rewrote ... and always we had the battle to stay caught up in our classwork.

Staff members are often asked, "Why do you do it?" That question is difficult to answer, for there are many motivations. The friendships that are formed under the times of pressure are priceless, and nothing is quite like the feeling of meeting a deadline and seeing the completed section off to the platemaker. And there is that very special day at the end of May when the first completed copy of the book is in the hands of the staff. But most rewarding of all is the knowledge that the Vintage will bring back many memories for the students and that its impact for the Lord on the lives of others will be incalculable over the years. If but one person is turned to Christ through this volume, the months of work will have been worthwhile.

World Events

For the people of the United States, 1983 was a watershed year. Many events of the year were turning points in our lives and in our nation. The world began to view the USSR through different eyes after their ruthless destruction of KAL flight 007. US-Soviet relations deteriorated with a new phase of NATO missile deployment in Europe. In Lebanon and Grenada, the United States suffered its first casualties since Vietnam as we once more made our military influence felt in the world. At home, the explosion of a bomb in the Capitol building prompted many unprecedented security measures. The Supreme Court's May ruling in the US vs. Bob Jones University case blurred the lines separating church and state. The economy took a turn for the better, in spite of the specter of huge budget deficits. A highly successful year for NASA's space shuttle and President Reagan's challenge to build a permanent manned space station by the end of the decade marked the beginning of a new era in space exploration.

The stability of American life in the past contrasts sharply with the uncertainty that has now become as accepted part of our lives. That uncertainty, which has caused the world to turn to itself for answers, should cause the Christian to turn to his Lord for security. More than ever we as Christians must be informed and discerning about the events that are taking place around us. If we are to share the hope that we have in Christ, we must have the wisdom that comes from above, and thus view our world from God's perspective.

At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place. Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth. He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth. After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard. God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend. Job 37:1-5

Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing. And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt-offering. All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity. To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him? Isaiah 40:15-18

It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in: that bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity. . . . and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.
